PATENTS

Application for and Grant of Patent

3 (1) An application for a patent may be made by any person whether Application he is a British subject or not and whether alone or jointly with any other person

(2) The application must be made in the prescribed form and must be left at the Patent Office in the prescribed manner

(3) The application must contain a declaration to the effect that the applicant is in possession of an invention whereof he or in the case of a joint application one at least of the applicants claims to be the true and first inventor or the legal representative or assign of such inventor and for which he desires to obtain a patent, and must be accompanied by a specification and by the prescribed fee

(4) Where the true and first inventor is not a party to the application, the application must contain a statement of his name and such particulars for his identification as may be prescribed and the applicant must show that he is the legal representative or assign of such inventor

4 (1) The specification must particularly describe and ascertain the Specification. nature of the invention and the manner in which the same is to be performed

(2) Where the Controller deems it desirable he may require that suitable drawings shall be supplied with the specification or at any time before the acceptance of the application and such drawings shall be deemed to form part of the specification

(3) The specification must commence with the title and must end with a distinct statement of the invention claimed

(4) If in any particular case the Controller considers that an application should be further supplemented by a model or sample of anything illustrating the invention or alleged to constitute an invention such model or sample as he may require shall be furnished before the acceptance of the application, but such model or sample shall not be deemed to form part of the specification

5 (1) The Controller shall examine every application and if he considers that—

- (a) the nature of the invention is not fairly described or
- (b) the application specification and drawings have not been prepared in the prescribed manner¹ * * *, or
- (c) the title does not sufficiently indicate the subject matter of the invention or
- (d) the statement of claim does not sufficiently define the invention

(Part I—Patents)

(e) the invention as described and claimed is prima facie not a new manufacture or improvement, ¹for

(f) the specification relates to more than one invention,] he may refuse to accept the application or require that the application, specification or drawings be amended before he proceeds with the application, and in the latter case the application shall, if the Controller so directs, bear date as from the time when the requirement is complied with

¹[Provided that, when a specification comprises more than one invention, the application shall, if the Controller or the applicant so requires, be restricted to one invention and the other inventions may be made the subject matter of fresh applications, and any such fresh application shall be proceeded with as a substantive application, but the Controller may, in his discretion, direct that any such fresh application made before the acceptance of the original application shall bear the date of the original application or such later date as he may fix, and the fresh application shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been made on the date which it bears in accordance with such direction]

(2) Where the Controller refuses to accept an application or requires an amendment, the applicant may appeal from his decision to the ²[Central Government]

(3) The investigations required by this section shall not be held in any way to guarantee the validity of any patent, and no liability shall be incurred by the ²[Central Government] or any officer by reason of, or in connection with, any such investigation or any proceeding consequent thereon

(4) Unless an application is accepted within twelve months from the date of the application, the application shall (except where an appeal has been lodged) become void

³[Provided that where, before, or within three months after, the expiration of the said period of twelve months, a request is made to the Controller for an extension of time by any period not exceeding three months, the application shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be continued or revived, as the case may be, during, but not beyond, the period of extension so requested]

6 On the acceptance of an application the Controller shall give notice thereof to the applicant and shall advertise the acceptance, and the application and specification with the drawings (if any) shall be open to public inspection

7. Where an application for a patent in respect of an invention has been accepted, any use or publication of the invention during the period between the date of application and the date of sealing such patent shall not prejudice the patent to be granted for the invention

³ Subs. by Act 7 of 1930 s. 3 for the original proviso

(Part I.—Patents.)

Provided that an applicant shall not be entitled to institute any proceedings for infringement unless and until a patent for the invention has been granted to him

8. [Inquiry before sealing patent] Rep. by the Indian Patents and Designs (Amendment) Act, 1930 (111 of 1930) s. 4

9. (1) Any person may, on payment of the prescribed fee, at any time within ³[four] months from the date of the advertisement of the acceptance of an application, give notice at the Patent Office of opposition to the grant of the patent on any of the following grounds, namely:—

Opposition to grant of patent

- (a) that the applicant obtained the invention from him, or from a person of whom he is the legal representative or assign, or
- (b) that the invention has been claimed in any specification filed in British India which is or will be of prior date to the patent, the grant of which is opposed, or
- (c) that the nature of the invention or the manner in which it is to be performed is not sufficiently or fairly described and ascertained in the specification, or
- (d) that the invention has been publicly used in any part of British India, or has been made publicly known in any part of British India,

but on no other ground

(2) Where such notice is given the Controller shall give notice of the opposition to the applicant and shall, on the expiration of those ²[four] months, after hearing the applicant and the opponent, if desirous of being heard, decide on the case

(3) The decision of the Controller shall be subject to appeal to the ³[Central Government]

10. (1) If there is no opposition, or, in case of opposition, if the determination is in favour of the grant of a patent, a patent shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be granted, subject to such conditions (if any) as the ³[Central Government] thinks expedient, to the applicant, or in the case of a joint application to the applicants jointly, and the Controller shall cause the patent to be sealed with the seal of the Patent Office.

Grant and sealing of patent

⁴[(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where—

- (a) an applicant has agreed in writing that on the grant to him of a patent he will assign it to another party or to a joint applicant and refuses to proceed with the application, or

³ Subs. by the A. O. for "G. G. M. C."

⁴ Ins. by Act 7 of 1930 s. 6

(Part I—Patents)

(b) disputes arise between joint applicants as to proceeding with an application the Controller, if he is satisfied of the existence of such agreement or, in any other case, that any joint applicant or applicants ought to be allowed to proceed alone, may direct that such other party or joint applicant or applicants may proceed with the application accordingly and may grant a patent to him or them, as the case may be Provided that—

(i) the Controller shall not give any such direction until every party interested has had an opportunity of being heard by him, and

(ii) an appeal from any such direction shall lie to the ¹[Central Government]

(2) A patent shall be sealed as soon as may be, and not after the expiration of eighteen months from the date of application

Provided that,—

(a) where the Controller has allowed an extension of the time within which an application may be accepted, a further extension of four months after the said eighteen months shall be allowed for the sealing of the patent,

(b) where the sealing is delayed by an appeal to the ¹[Central Government] ²* * * * or by opposition to the grant of the patent, the patent may be sealed at such time as the Controller may direct,

(c) where the patent is granted to the legal representative of an applicant who has died before the expiration of the time which would otherwise be allowed for sealing the patent, the patent may be sealed at any time within twelve months after the date of his death,

(d) where ³[for any reason] a patent cannot be sealed within the period allowed by ⁴[any of the foregoing provisions of] this section, that period may, on payment of the prescribed fee and on compliance with the prescribed conditions be extended ⁵[to the extent applied for but not exceeding three months]

11. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, a patent shall be dated and sealed as of the date of the application

Provided that no proceedings shall be taken in respect of an infringement committed before the ⁶[advertisement of the acceptance of the application]

(Part I — Patents)

12. (1) A patent sealed with the seal of the Patent Office shall, subject to the other provisions of this Act, confer on the patentee the exclusive privilege of making, selling and using the invention throughout British India and of authorizing others so to do.

Effect, extent and form of patent

(2) Every patent may be in the prescribed form and shall be granted for one invention only, but the specification may contain more than one claim, and it shall not be competent for any person in a suit or other proceeding to take any objection to a patent on the ground that it has been granted for more than one invention.

13. (1) A patent granted to the true and first inventor or his legal representative or assign shall not be invalidated by an application in fraud of him or by protection obtained thereon or by any use or publication of the invention subsequent to that fraudulent application during the period of protection.

Fraudulent applications for patents

[(2) Where a patent has been revoked by the High Court on the ground that it has been obtained in fraud of the true and first inventor, or where the grant of a patent has been refused by the Controller under section 9 on the ground stated in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of that section, the Controller may, on the application of the true inventor or his legal representative or assign made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, grant to him a patent for the whole or any part of the invention and the patent so granted shall bear the same date as the patent so revoked or, in the case of a patent the grant of which has been refused, the same date as would have been borne by the patent if it had been granted.]

Provided that no suit shall be brought for any infringement of the patent so granted committed before the actual date when such patent was granted.]

Term of Patent

14. (1) The term limited in every patent for the duration thereof shall save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act be ²[sixteen] years from its date.

Term of patent

³[(1A) Any patent the original term of which had not expired on or before the 1st day of July 1930 shall have effect as if the term mentioned therein was sixteen years instead of fourteen years and any license existing at that date which has been granted for the term of the patent shall be treated as having been granted for the term as so extended if the licensee so desires.]

(1B) Where any party to a contract with the patentee or any other person entered into before the 1st day of January 1930 is subjected to loss or liability by reason of the extension of the term of any patent under this section,

² Subs. by s. 9 ibid for fourteen.

(Part I—Patents)

any District Court having jurisdiction may determine in what manner and by which parties such loss or liability shall be borne]

(2) A patent shall notwithstanding anything therein or in this Act, cease if the patentee fails to pay the prescribed fees within the prescribed times

¹[Provided that where the patentee before or within three months after, the expiration of the time for payment applies to the Controller for an extension of time by any period not exceeding three months the patent shall, on payment of such additional fee as may be prescribed be continued or revived, as the case may be during but not beyond the period of extension applied for]

(3) If any proceeding is taken in respect of an infringement of the patent committed after a failure to pay any fee within the prescribed time, and before any enlargement thereof, the Court before which the proceeding is taken may, if it thinks fit, refuse to award any damages in respect of such infringement

15 (1) A patentee may ²* * * present a petition to the ³[Central Government] praying that his patent may be extended for a further term, but such petition must be left at the Patent Office at least six months before the time limited for the expiration of the patent and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ⁴[and must be advertised by the patentee within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner]

(2) Any person may ⁵[within such time as may be prescribed and on payment of the prescribed fee] give notice to the Controller of objection to the extension

(3) Where a petition is presented under sub section (1) the ⁶[Central Government] may as ⁷[it] thinks fit dispose of the petition ⁸[itself] or refer it to a High Court for decision

(4) If the petition be referred to a High Court then on the hearing of such petition under this section the patentee and any person who has given notice under sub section (2) of objection shall be made parties to the proceeding, and the Controller shall be entitled to appear and be heard

(5) The Court to which the petition is referred shall in considering its decision have regard to the nature and merits of the invention in relation to the public to the profits made by the patentee as such, and to all the circumstances of the case

(6) If it appears to the ⁹[Central Government] or to the High Court when the petition has been referred to it that the patentee has been inadequately remunerated by his patent, the ⁹[Central Government] or the High Court, as the case may be, may by order extend the term of the patent for a further

Provided that any patent so extended or granted shall notwithstanding anything therein or in this Act cease if the inventor fails to pay before the expiration of each year the prescribed fee

⁴[15A. (1) Where a patent for an invention has been applied for or granted, and the applicant or the patentee as the case may be applies for a further patent in respect of any improvement in or modification of the invention he may in his application for the further patent request that the term limited in that patent for the duration thereof be the same as that of the original patent or so much of that term as is unexpired and if he does so, a patent (hereinafter referred to as a patent of addition) may be granted for such term as aforesaid

Patents of addition

(2) Save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act a patent of addition shall remain in force as long as the patent for the original invention remains in force, but no longer and in respect of a patent of addition no fees shall be payable for renewal

Provided that if the patent for the original invention is revoked then the patent of addition shall if the authority by which it is revoked so orders, become an independent patent and the fees payable and the dates when they become payable, shall be determined by its date, but its duration shall not exceed the unexpired term of the patent for the original invention

(3) The grant of a patent of addition shall be conclusive evidence that the invention is a proper subject for a patent of addition and the validity of the patent shall not be questioned on the ground that the invention ought to have been the subject of an independent patent]

16 (1) Where any patent has ceased owing to the failure of the patentee to pay any prescribed fee within the prescribed time the patentee may apply to the Controller in the prescribed manner for an order for the restoration of the patent

Restoration of lapsed patent

(2) Every such application shall contain a statement of the circumstances which have led to the omission of the payment of the prescribed fee

(3) If it appears from such statement that the omission was unintentional or unavoidable and that no undue delay has occurred in the making of the application the Controller shall advertise the application in the prescribed manner, and within such time as may be prescribed any person may give notice of opposition at the Patent Office

(4) Where such notice is given the Controller shall notify the applicant thereof

(5) After the expiration of the prescribed period the Controller shall hear the case and, subject to an appeal to the ¹[Central Government] issue an order either restoring the patent subject to any conditions ²[and restrictions] deemed to be advisable or dismissing the application

Provided that in every order under this section restoring a patent such provisions as may be prescribed shall be inserted for the protection of persons who may have availed themselves of the subject matter of the patent after the patent had ceased

Amendment of Application or Specification

Amendment of application or specification by Controller

17. (1) An applicant or a patentee may at any time by request in writing left at the Patent Office and accompanied by the prescribed fee seek leave to amend his application or specification, including drawings forming part thereof, by way of disclaimer, correction or explanation, stating the nature of, and the reasons for, the proposed amendment

(2) If the application for a patent has not been accepted the Controller shall determine whether and subject to what conditions (if any) the amendment shall be allowed

(3) In any other case the request and the nature of the proposed amendment shall be advertised in the prescribed manner, and at any time within three months from its first advertisement any person may give notice at the Patent Office of opposition to the amendment

(4) Where such a notice is given the Controller shall give notice of the opposition to the person making the request, and shall hear and decide the case

(5) Where no notice of opposition is given, or the person so giving notice of opposition does not appear, the Controller shall determine whether and subject to what conditions, if any, the amendment ought to be allowed

(6) The decision of the Controller in either case shall be subject to an appeal to the ¹[Central Government]

(7) No amendment shall be allowed that would make the application or specification, as amended, claim an invention substantially larger than, or substantially different from, the invention claimed by the application or specification as it stood before amendment

(8) Leave to amend shall be conclusive as to the right of the party to make the amendment allowed, except in case of fraud, and the amendment shall be advertised in the prescribed manner, and shall in all Courts and for all purposes be deemed to form part of the application or specification

(9) This section shall not apply when and so long as any suit for infringement or proceeding before a Court for the revocation of the patent is pending.

18. In any suit for infringement of a patent or proceeding before a Court for the revocation of a patent the Court may by order allow the patentee to amend his specification by way of disclaimer ^{Amendment of specification by the Court} [correction or explanation] in such manner, and subject to such terms as to costs, advertisement or otherwise, as the Court may think fit

Provided that no amendment shall be so allowed that would make the specification, as amended, claim an invention substantially larger than, or substantially different from, the invention claimed by the specification as it stood before the amendment, and where an application for such an order is made to the Court notice of the application shall be given to the Controller, and the Controller shall have the right to appear and be heard

19. Where an amendment of a specification by way of disclaimer, correction or explanation has been allowed under this Act, no damages shall be given in any suit in respect of the use of the invention ^{Restriction on recovery of damages} [before the date of the decision allowing the amendment] unless the patentee establishes to the satisfaction of the Court that his original claim was framed in good faith and with reasonable skill and knowledge

Register of Patents

20. (1) There shall be kept at the Patent Office a book called the Register ^{Register of Patents} of Patents, wherein shall be entered the names and addresses of grantees of Patents, notifications of assignments and of transmissions of patents, of licenses under patents, and of amendment, extensions, and revocations of patents, and such other matters affecting the validity or proprietorship of patents as may be prescribed

(2) The register of inventions and address book existing at the commencement of this Act shall be incorporated with, and form part of, the register of patents under this Act

(3) The register of patents shall be prima facie evidence of any matters by this Act directed or authorised to be inserted therein

(4) Copies of deeds, licenses and any other documents affecting the proprietorship in any patent or in any license thereunder, must be supplied to the Controller in the prescribed manner for filing in the Patent Office * * * * *

bind Crown

1[21. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a patent shall have to all intents the like effect as against His Majesty the King as it has against a subject

(2) The officers or authorities administering any department of the service of His Majesty may, by themselves or by such of their agents, contractors or others as may be authorised in writing by them at any time after the application and after giving notice to the applicant or patentee, make, use or exercise the invention for the service of the Crown on such terms as may, either before or after the use thereof be agreed on with the approval of the ²[Central Government] between such officers or authorities and the applicant or patentee, or, in default of agreement, as may be settled in the manner hereinafter provided. And the terms of any agreement or license concluded between the applicant or patentee and any person other than such officers or authorities, shall be inoperative so far as concerns the making use or exercise of the invention for the service of the Crown

(3) Where an invention which is the subject of any patent has before the date of the patent been duly recorded in a document by or tried by or on behalf of the officers or authorities administering any department of the service of His Majesty (such invention not having been communicated directly or indirectly by the applicant or patentee) such officers or authorities, or such of their agents, contractors or others as may be authorised in writing by them may after giving notice to the applicant or patentee make use or exercise the invention so recorded or tried for the service of the Crown free of any royalty or other payment to the applicant or patentee, notwithstanding the existence of the patent. If in the opinion of such officers or authorities, the disclosure to the applicant or patentee as the case may be, of the document recording the invention or the evidence of the trial thereof, if required, would be detrimental to the public interest it may be made confidentially to counsel on behalf of the applicant or patentee or to any independent expert mutually agreed upon

(4) In the event of any dispute as to the making, use or exercise of an invention under this section, or the terms thereof, or as to the existence or scope of any record or trial as aforesaid the matter shall be referred to the High Court for decision who shall have power to refer the whole matter or any question or issue of fact arising thereon to be tried before a special or official referee or an arbitrator upon such terms as it may direct. The Court, referee or arbitrator as the case may be, may, with the consent of the parties, take into consideration the validity of the patent for the purposes only of the reference and for the determination of the issues between the applicant or patentee and such officers or authorities. (2) In the case of a witness amenable to military authority, the summons shall be sent to the officer commanding the corps, department or detachment to which he belongs, and such officer shall serve it upon him accordingly

(3) In the case of any other witness, the summons shall be sent to the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction he may be or reside, and such Magistrate shall give effect to the summons as if the witness were required in the Court of such Magistrate

(4) When a witness is required to produce any particular document or other thing in his possession or power, the summons shall describe it with convenient certainty

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 sections 123 and 124, or to apply to any letter, postcard, telegram¹ or other document in the custody of the postal or telegraph authorities

(6) If any document in such custody is, in the opinion of any District Magistrate, Chief Presidency Magistrate, High Court or Court of Session, wanted for the purpose of any court martial, such Magistrate or Court may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to deliver such document to such person as such Magistrate or Court may direct

(7) If any such document is, in the opinion of any other Magistrate or of any Commissioner of Police or District Superintendent of Police, wanted for any such purpose, he may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to cause search to be made for and to detain such document pending the orders of any such District Magistrate, Chief Presidency Magistrate or Court

85. (1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by court-martial, it appears to the court that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, in the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such court may address the Judge Advocate General in order that a commission to take the evidence of such witness may be issued

(2) The Judge Advocate General may then, if he thinks necessary, issue a commission to any District Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such witness resides, to take the evidence of such witness

¹[(3) When the witness resides in any Indian State or tribal area in which there is an officer representing the Central Government or the Crown Representative, the commission may be issued to that officer]

(4) The Magistrate or officer to whom the commission is issued, or, if he is the District Magistrate, he or such Magistrate of the first class as he appoints in this behalf, shall proceed to the place where the witness is or shall summon the witness before him and shall take down his evidence in the same manner, and may for this purpose exercise the same powers, as in trials of warrant cases under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898

(5) Where the commission is issued to such officer as is mentioned in sub section (3), he may delegate his powers and duties under the commission to any officer subordinate to him whose powers are not less than those of a Magistrate of the first class in British India

(6) When the witness resides out of India, the commission may be issued to any British consular officer, British Magistrate or other British official competent to administer an oath or affirmation in the place where such witness resides

(7) The prosecutor and the accused person in any case in which a commission is issued may respectively forward any interrogatories in writing which the court may think relevant to the issue, and the Magistrate or officer to whom the commission is issued shall examine the witness upon such interrogatories

(8) The prosecutor and the accused person may appear before such Magistrate or officer by pleader or, except in the case of an accused person in custody, in person, and may examine, cross examine and re examine (as the case may be) the said witness

(9) After any commission issued under this section has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder, to the Judge Advocate General

(10) On receipt of a commission and deposition returned under sub-section (9), the Judge Advocate General shall forward the same to the court at whose instance the commission was issued or if such court has been dissolved, to any other court convened for the trial of the accused person, and the commission the return thereto and the deposition shall be open to the inspection of the prosecutor and the accused person, and may, subject to all just exceptions, be read in evidence in the case by either the prosecutor or the accused, and shall form part of the proceedings of the court

(11) In every case in which a commission is issued under this section the trial may be adjourned for a specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution and return of the commission

Explanation—In this section, the expression “Judge Advocate General” means the Judge Advocate General in India, and includes a Deputy Judge Advocate General

Further provisions as to reception orders on petition

11 No reception order shall be made under section 7 or section 10 save in the case of a lunatic who is dangerous and unfit to be at large, unless—

- (a) the Magistrate is satisfied that the person in charge of an asylum is willing to receive the lunatic and
- (b) the petitioner or some other person engages in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate to pay the cost of maintenance of the lunatic

Power to appoint substitute for the person upon whose application a reception order has been made

[11A (1)] The Magistrate may subject to the provisions of this section, by order in writing (hereinafter referred to as an order of substitution) transfer the duties and responsibilities under this Act of the person on whose petition a reception order has been made to any other person who is willing to undertake the same and such other person shall thereupon be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the person on whose petition the reception order was made and all references in this Act to such last mentioned person shall be construed accordingly

Provided that no such order of substitution shall release the person upon whose petition the reception order was made or if he is dead his legal representative from any liability incurred before the order of substitution was made

(2) Before making any order of substitution the Magistrate shall send a notice to the person upon whose petition the reception order was made if he is alive and to any relative of the lunatic to whom in the opinion of the Magistrate notice should be given the notice shall specify the name of the person in whose favour it is proposed to make such order and the date which shall be not less than twenty days from the sending of the notice upon which any objection to the making of the order will be considered

(3) On such date or any subsequent date to which the proceedings may be adjourned the Magistrate shall consider any objection made by any person to whom notice has been sent or by any other relative of the lunatic and shall receive all such evidence as may be produced by or on behalf of any of such persons and such further evidence if any as the Magistrate thinks necessary and may thereafter make or refrain from making an order of substitution

Provided that if the person on whose petition the reception order was made is dead and any other person is willing and in the opinion of the Magistrate fitted to undertake the duties and responsibilities under this Act of such first mentioned person the Magistrate shall make such an order

(4) If in proceedings under this section any question arises as to the person to whom the duties and responsibilities under this Act of a person upon whose petition a reception order has been made shall be entrusted the Magistrate shall give preference to the person who is the nearest relative of the

lunatic, unless for reasons to be recorded in writing the Magistrate considers that such preference would not be in the interests of the lunatic

(5) The Magistrate may make such order for the payment of the costs of an inquiry under this section by any person who is a party thereto or out of the estate of the lunatic as he thinks fit

(6) Any notice under sub section (2) may be sent by post to the last known address of the person for whom it is intended]

[11B] (1) When an arrangement has been made with any foreign European State with respect to the reception of lunatics in asylums in British India, the [Central Government] may, by notification in the [Official Gazette] direct that reception orders may be made under this Act in the case of any lunatic or class of lunatics residing in the territories in India of such foreign European State and shall in such notification specify the province or provinces within which such reception orders may be made

Reception order in case of lunatics from foreign States in India

(2) On publication of a notification under sub section (1), the provisions of this Act as to the making of reception orders on petition and for temporary detention in suitable custody shall apply in the case of such lunatics, with the following modifications namely—

(a) an application for a reception order may be made by petition presented by such officer or agent of the foreign State in which the alleged lunatic ordinarily resides as may by general or special order be approved by the [Provincial Government] in this behalf,

(b) the functions of the Magistrate shall be performed by such officer as the [Provincial Government] may by general or special order, appoint in this behalf, and such officer shall be deemed to be the Magistrate having jurisdiction over the alleged lunatic for all the purposes of the said provisions,

(c) for the purposes of sections 5 and 18 (1), the expressions "medical officer" and "medical practitioner" shall include such person or class of persons as the [Provincial Government] may specify in this behalf,

(d) the Magistrate may in his discretion extend the period prescribed by section 19 within which the alleged lunatic must have been medically examined, and

(e) sections 6 (1) (2) (3), 11, [11A] and 34 of the Act, shall not apply, and with such other modifications, restrictions or adaptations as the

Reception orders otherwise than on petition

12. When any European who is subject to the provisions of the ³Army Act ⁴[the Naval Discipline Act or that Act as modified by the Indian Navy (Discipline) Act, 1934] ⁵[the Air Force Act or the Indian Air Force Act, 1932] has been declared a lunatic in accordance with the provisions of the military ⁶[naval] ⁶[for air force] regulations in force for the time being, and it appears to any administrative medical officer that he should be removed to an asylum, such administrative medical officer may, if he thinks fit, make a reception order under his hand for the admission of the said lunatic into any asylum which has been duly authorised⁷ for the purpose by the ¹[Central Government]

13. (1) Every officer in charge of a police station may arrest or cause to be arrested all persons found wandering at large within the limits of his station whom he has reason to believe to be lunatics, and shall arrest or cause to be arrested all persons within the limits of his station whom he has reason to believe to be dangerous by reason of lunacy. Any person so arrested shall be taken forthwith before the Magistrate

(2) Every officer in charge of a police station who has reason to believe that any person within the limits of his station is deemed to be a lunatic and is not under proper care and control, or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him, shall immediately report the fact to the Magistrate

14. Whenever any person is brought before a Magistrate under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 13, the Magistrate shall examine such person, and if he thinks that there are grounds for proceeding further, shall cause him to be examined by a medical officer, and may make such other inquiries as he thinks fit, and if the Magistrate is satisfied that such person is a lunatic and a proper person to be detained, he may, if the medical officer who has examined such person gives a medical certificate with regard to such person, make a reception order for the admission of such lunatic into an asylum

Provided that, if any friend or relative desires that the lunatic be sent to a licensed asylum and engages in writing to the satisfaction of the Magistrate to pay the cost of maintenance of the lunatic in such asylum, the Magistrate shall, if the person in charge of such asylum consents make a reception order for the admission of the lunatic into the licensed asylum mentioned in the engagement

Provided further that if any friend or relative of the lunatic enters into a bond with or without sureties for such sum of money as the Magistrate thinks fit, conditioned that such lunatic shall be properly taken care of, and shall be prevented from doing injury to himself or to others, the Magistrate, instead of making a reception order, may, if he thinks fit, make him over to the care of such friend or relative

15 (1) If it appears to the Magistrate, on the report of a police officer or the information of any other person, that any person within the limits of his jurisdiction deemed to be a lunatic is not under proper care and control or is cruelly treated or neglected by any relative or other person having the charge of him the Magistrate may cause the alleged lunatic to be produced before him, and summon such relative or other person as has or ought to have the charge of him

Order in case of lunatic cruelly treated or not under proper care and control

(2) If such relative or other person is legally bound to maintain the alleged lunatic the Magistrate may make an order for such alleged lunatic being properly cared for and treated and, if such relative or other person wilfully neglects to comply with the said order the Magistrate may sentence him to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month

(3) If there is no person legally bound to maintain the alleged lunatic, or if the Magistrate thinks fit so to do, he may proceed as prescribed in section 14 and upon being satisfied in manner aforesaid that the person deemed to be a lunatic is a lunatic and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment may, if a medical officer gives a medical certificate with regard to such lunatic, make a reception order for the admission of such lunatic into an asylum

16 (1) When any person alleged to be a lunatic is brought before a Magistrate under the provisions of section 13 he may, by an order in writing, authorise the detention of such person in custody for such time not exceeding ten days as he thinks necessary to enable the medical officer to determine whether such alleged lunatic is a person in respect of whom a medical certificate may be properly given

Detention of alleged lunatic

(2) The Magistrate may, from time to time, for the same purpose by order in writing, authorise such further detention of the alleged lunatic for periods not exceeding ten days at a time as he thinks necessary

Provided that no person shall be detained in accordance with the provisions of this section for a total period exceeding thirty days from the date on which he was first brought before the Magistrate

Commissioner of Police, etc., to act in the Presidency town

17. All acts which the Magistrate is authorised or required to do by sections 14, 15 or 16 may be done in the Presidency towns ^{1*}. * * * by the Commissioner of Police, and all duties which an officer in charge of a police station is authorised or required to perform may be performed in any of the Presidency towns by an officer of the police force not below the rank of an inspector

Further provisions as to reception orders and medical certificates

Medical certificates

18. (1) Every medical certificate under this Act shall be made and signed by a medical practitioner or a medical officer, as the case may be, and shall be in the form prescribed

(2) Every medical certificate shall state the facts upon which the person certifying has formed his opinion that the alleged lunatic is a lunatic, distinguishing facts observed by himself from facts communicated by others and no reception order on petition shall be made upon a certificate founded only upon facts communicated by others

(3) Every medical certificate made under this Act shall be evidence of the facts therein appearing and of the judgment therein stated to have been formed by the person certifying on such facts, as if the matters therein appearing had been verified on oath

Time and manner of medical examination of lunatic

19. (1) A reception order required to be founded on a medical certificate shall not be made unless the person who signs the medical certificate, or where two certificates are required, each person who signs a certificate has personally examined the alleged lunatic, in the case of an order upon petition, not more than seven clear days before the date of the presentation of the petition, and, in all other cases not more than seven clear days before the date of the order

(2) Where two medical certificates are required, a reception order shall not be made unless each person signing a certificate has examined the alleged lunatic separately from the other

Authority for reception

20. A reception order, if the same appears to be in conformity with this Act, shall be sufficient authority for the petitioner or any person authorised by him, or in the case of an order not made upon petition, for the person authorised so to do by the person making the order, to take the lunatic and convey him to the place mentioned in such order and for his reception and detention therein, or in any asylum to which he may be removed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the order may be acted on without further evidence of the signature or of the jurisdiction of the person making the order

[Provided that no reception order shall continue to have effect—

- (a) after the expiry of thirty days from the date on which it was made, unless the lunatic has been admitted to the place mentioned therein within that period or
- (b) after the discharge, under the provisions of this Act of the lunatic from such place or from any asylum to which he may have been removed]

21 Any authority making a reception order under this Part shall forthwith send a certified copy of the order to the person in charge of the asylum into which such lunatic is to be admitted

Copy of reception order to be sent to person in charge of asylum

22. Subject to the provisions of section 85 no Magistrate shall make a reception order for the admission of any lunatic into [any Government asylum] outside the province in which the Magistrate exercises jurisdiction

Restriction as to asylums into which reception orders may direct admission

Detention of lunatics pending removal to asylum

23 When any reception order has been made under sections 7, 10, 14 or 15 the Magistrate may, for reasons to be recorded in writing direct that the lunatic pending his removal to an asylum be detained in suitable custody in such place as the Magistrate thinks fit

Reception and detention of criminal lunatics

24 An order under section 466 or section 471 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 or under section 30 of the Prisoners Act 1900 [or under section 103A of the Indian Army Act 1911] directing the reception of a criminal lunatic into any asylum which is prescribed for the reception of criminal lunatics shall be sufficient authority for the reception and detention of any person named therein in such asylum or in any other asylum to which he may be lawfully transferred

Reception after inquisition

25. A lunatic so found by inquisition may be admitted into an asylum—

Reception after inquisition

- (1) in the case of an inquisition under Chapter IV, on an order made by, or under the authority of, the High Court,
- (2) in the case of an inquisition under Chapter V, on an order made by the District Court

26. (1) When any lunatic has been admitted into an asylum in accordance with the provisions of section 25 the High Court or the District Court

29 Two or more of the visitors, one of whom shall be a medical officer, shall, once at least in every month, together inspect every part of the asylum of which they are visitors, and see and examine, as far as circumstances will permit, every lunatic and boarder therein, and the order and certificate for the admission of every lunatic admitted since the last visitation of the visitors, and shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose any remarks which they may deem proper in regard to the management and condition of the asylum and the inmates thereof

(Part II—Reception, Care and Treatment of Lunatics Chapter III—Care and Treatment)

30 (1) When any person is ¹[detained] under the provisions of section 466 or section 471 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 ²[or under the provisions of section 103A of the Indian Army Act, 1911] the Inspector General of Prisons if such person is ¹[detained] in a jail or the visitors of the asylum or any two of them if he is ¹[detained] in an asylum may visit him in order to ascertain his state of mind, and he shall be visited once at least in every six months by such Inspector General or by two of such visitors as aforesaid and such Inspector General or visitors shall make a special report as to the state of mind of such person to the authority under whose order he is ¹[detained]

Inspection of criminal lunatics by Inspector General or visitors

(2) The ³[Provincial Government] may empower the officer in charge of the jail in which such person may be ¹[detained] to discharge all or any of the functions of the Inspector General under sub section (1)

Discharge of lunatics

31. (1) Three of the visitors of any asylum, of whom one shall be a medical officer, may, by order in writing direct the discharge of any person detained in such asylum and such person shall thereupon be discharged

Order of discharge from asylum by visitors

Provided that no order under this sub section shall be made in the case of a person detained under a reception order under section 12 or, in the case of a criminal lunatic otherwise than as provided by section 30 of the Prisoners Act 1900

(2) When such order is made, if the person is detained under the order of any public authority notice of the order of discharge shall be immediately communicated to such authority

32 (1) A lunatic detained in an asylum under a reception order, made on petition shall be discharged if the person on whose petition the reception order was made so applies in writing to the person in charge of the asylum

Discharge of lunatics in other cases and of European military lunatics

Provided that no lunatic shall be discharged under the provisions of sub section (1) if the officer in charge of the asylum certifies in writing that the lunatic is dangerous and unfit to be at large

(2) A person detained in an asylum under a reception order made under section 12 shall be detained therein until he is discharged therefrom in accordance with the military ⁴[naval] ⁵[or air force] regulations in force for the time being or until the officer making the order applies for his transfer to the military ⁴[, naval] ⁵[or air force] authorities in view to his removal to England

(Part III—Judicial Inquisition as to Lunacy Chapter IV—Proceedings in Lunacy in Presidency towns)

Court may order inquisition as to persons alleged to be insane

38. (1) The Court may upon application by order direct an inquisition whether a person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court who is alleged to be lunatic, is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs

(2) Such order may also contain directions for inquiries concerning the nature of the property belonging to the alleged lunatic, the persons who are his relatives, the time during which he has been of unsound mind, or such other matters as to the Court may seem proper

Application by whom to be made

39. Application for such inquisition may be made by any relative of the alleged lunatic, or by the Advocate General

Notice of time and place of inquisition

40. (1) Notice shall be given to the alleged lunatic of the time and place at which it is proposed to hold the inquisition

(2) If it appears that personal service on the alleged lunatic would be ineffectual, the Court may direct such substituted service of the notice as it thinks fit

(3) The Court may also direct a copy of such notice to be served upon any relative of the alleged lunatic and upon any other person to whom in the opinion of the Court notice of the application should be given

Powers of Court in respect of attendance and examination of lunatic

41. (1) The Court may require the alleged lunatic to attend at such convenient time and place as it may appoint for the purpose of being personally examined by the Court, or by any person from whom the Court may desire to have a report of the mental capacity and condition of such alleged lunatic

(2) The Court may likewise make an order authorising any person or persons therein named to have access to the alleged lunatic for the purpose of a personal examination

Rules respecting attendance and examination of females alleged to be lunatic

42. The attendance and examination of the alleged lunatic under the provisions of section 41 shall, if the alleged lunatic be a woman who, according to the manners and customs of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public, be regulated by the law and practice for the examination of such persons in other civil cases

Power to direct District Court to make inquisition in certain cases

43. (1) If the alleged lunatic is not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court and the inquisition cannot conveniently be made in the manner hereinbefore provided, the Court may direct the inquisition to be made before the District Court within whose local jurisdiction the alleged lunatic may be, and such District Court shall accordingly proceed to make such inquisition in the same manner as if the alleged lunatic were subject to its jurisdiction, and shall certify its finding upon the matters of inquisition to the Court directing the inquisition

(2) The record of evidence taken upon the inquisition shall be transmitted, together with any remarks the Court may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the inquisition was directed

Amendment of finding of District

44. If the finding of the District Court appears to the Court directing the inquisition to be defective or insufficient in point of form, it may either

(Part III.—Judicial Inquiry as to Lunacy Chapter IV—Proceedings in Lunacy in Presidency towns)

amend the same or refer it back to the Court which made the inquiry to be amended

Court if defective or insufficient in form Proceedings on finding of Court

45. The finding of the Court on the inquiry or the finding of the District Court to which the inquiry may have been referred under the provisions of section 43 with such amendments as may be made under the provisions of section 44, as the case may be, shall have the same effect, and be proceeded on in the same manner in regard to the appointment of a guardian of the person and a manager of the estate of the lunatic as the findings referred to in section 12 of the Lunacy (Supreme Courts) Act, 1858, immediately before the commencement of this Act

Judicial powers over person and estate of lunatic

46. (1) The Court may make orders for the custody of lunatics so found by inquiry and the management of their estates

Custody of lunatics and management of their estates

(2) When upon the inquiry it is specially found that the person to whom the inquiry relates is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself, and is not dangerous to himself or to others, the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit for the management of the estate of the lunatic including proper provision for the maintenance of the lunatic and of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance, but it shall not be necessary to make any order as to the custody of the person of the lunatic

47. The Court, on the appointment of a manager of the estate of a lunatic, may direct by the order of appointment, or by any subsequent order, that such manager shall have such powers for the management of the estate as to the Court may seem necessary and proper, reference being had to the nature of the property, whether moveable or immoveable, of which the estate may consist

Powers of manager in respect of management of lunatic's estate

Provided that no manager so appointed shall without the permission of the Court—

- (a) mortgage, charge or transfer by sale, gift, exchange or otherwise, any immoveable property of the lunatic, or
- (b) lease any such property for a term exceeding five years

48. The Court may, on application made to it by petition concerning any matter whatsoever connected with the lunatic or his estate, make such order, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, respecting the application, as to the circumstances it thinks fit

Power to make order concerning any matter connected with the lunacy.

(Part III — Judicial Inquisition as to Lunacy Chapter IV — Proceedings in Lunacy in Presidency towns)

Management and administration

49 The Court may, if it appears to be just or for the lunatic's benefit, order that any property, movable or immovable of the lunatic, and whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or contingency, he sold, charged, mortgaged, dealt with or otherwise disposed of as may seem most expedient for the purpose of raising or securing or repaying with or without interest money to be applied or which has been applied to all or any of the following purposes namely—

- (1) the payment of the lunatic's debts or engagements,
- (2) the discharge of any incumbrance on his property,
- (3) the payment of any debt or expenditure incurred for the lunatic's maintenance or otherwise for his benefit,
- (4) the payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance and the maintenance of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance, including the expenses of his removal to Europe, if he shall be so removed, and all expenses incidental thereto,
- (5) the payment of the costs of any inquiry under this Chapter, and of any costs incurred by order or under the authority of the Court

Execution of conveyances and powers by manager under order of Court

50 (1) The manager of the lunatic's estate shall in the name and on behalf of the lunatic execute all such conveyances and instruments of transfer relative to any sale, mortgage or other disposition of his estate as the Court may order

(2) Such manager shall in like manner, under the order of the Court exercise all powers whatsoever vested in a lunatic, whether the same are vested in him for his own benefit or in the character of trustee or guardian

Court may order performance of contract

51. Where a person having contracted to sell or otherwise dispose of his estate or any part thereof afterwards becomes lunatic, the Court may, if the contract is such as the Court thinks ought to be performed, direct the manager of the estate to execute such conveyances and to do such other acts in fulfilment of the contract as it shall think proper

Dissolution and disposal of property of partnership on a member becoming lunatic

52 (1) Where a person, being a member of a partnership firm, is found to be a lunatic, the Court may, on the application of the other partners, or of any person who appears in the Court to be entitled to require the same, dissolve the partnership

(2) Upon such dissolution, or upon a dissolution by decree of Court or otherwise by due course of law, the manager of the estate may, in the name and on behalf of the lunatic, join with the other partners in disposing of the partnership property upon such terms, and shall do all such acts for carrying into effect the dissolution of the partnership, as the Court shall think proper

(Part III—Judicial Inquisition as to Lunacy Chapter IV—Proceedings in Lunacy in Presidency towns)

53. Where a lunatic has been engaged in business the Court may, if it appears to be for the lunatic's benefit that the business premises should be disposed of, order the manager of the estate to sell and dispose of the same, and the moneys arising from such sale shall be applied in such manner as the Court may direct

Disposal of business premises

54. Where a lunatic is entitled to a lease or under lease, and it appears to be for the benefit of his estate that it should be disposed of, the manager of the estate may, by order of the Court, surrender, assign or otherwise dispose of the same to such person for such valuable or nominal consideration, and upon such terms, as the Court thinks fit

Manager may dispose of lease

55 If a lunatic is possessed of any immovable property situate beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court which by the law in force in the Province wherein such property is situated, subjects the proprietor if disqualified, to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the said Court of Wards may assume the charge of such property and manage the same according to the law for the time being in force for such management

Assumption of charge by Court of Wards of land belonging to a lunatic in certain cases

Provided that—

(1) in such case, no further proceedings in respect of the lunacy shall be taken under any such law, nor shall it be competent to the Court of Wards or to any Collector to appoint a guardian of the person of the said lunatic or a manager of the estate except of the immovable property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid

(2) the surplus of the income of such property after providing for the payment of the Government revenue and expenses of management, shall be disposed of from time to time in such manner as the High Court may direct

(3) nothing contained in this section shall affect the powers given to the High Court by sections 49 50 and 51 or (except so far as relates to the management of the said immovable property which so subjects the proprietor as aforesaid) the powers given by any other section

56 (1) If it appears to the Court having regard to the situation and condition in life of the lunatic and his family and the other circumstances of the case to be expedient that his property should be made available for his or their maintenance in a direct and inexpensive manner it may instead of appointing a manager of the estate order that the property, if money or if of any other description the produce thereof when realized be paid to such person as the Court may think fit to be applied for the purpose aforesaid

Power to apply property for lunatic's maintenance instead of appointing manager

(2) The receipt of the person so appointed shall be a valid discharge to any person who pays any money or delivers any property of the lunatic to such person

(Part III—Judicial Inquisition as to Lunacy Chapter IV—Proceedings in Lunacy in Presidency towns)

Vesting orders

Power to order transfer of stock belonging to lunatic in certain cases

57. Where any stock or Government securities or any share in a company (transferable within British India or the dividends of which are payable there) is or are standing in the name of, or vested in, a lunatic, beneficially entitled thereto, or in a manager of the estate of a lunatic, or in a trustee for him, and the manager dies intestate, or himself becomes lunatic, or is out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or it is uncertain whether the manager is living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the stock, securities or shares, or to receive and pay over thereof the dividends to a new manager or as the Court directs, within fourteen days after being required by the Court to do so, then the Court may order some fit person to make such transfer, or to transfer the same, and to receive and pay over the dividends in such manner as the Court directs

Power to order transfer of stock of lunatic residing out of British India and the United Kingdom

58. Where any such stock or Government securities or share in a company is or are standing in the name of, or vested in, any person residing out of British India and not in any part of the United Kingdom the Court upon being satisfied that such person has been declared lunatic, and that his personal estate has been vested in a person appointed for the management thereof, according to the law of the place where he is residing may order some fit person to make such transfer of the stock, securities or shares or of any part thereof, to or into the name of the person so appointed or otherwise and also to receive and pay over the dividends and proceeds as the Court thinks fit

Power to apply property for lunatic's maintenance in case of temporary lunacy

59. If it appears to the Court that the unsoundness of mind of a lunatic is in its nature temporary, and that it is expedient to make temporary provision for his maintenance or for the maintenance of such members of his family as are dependent on him for their maintenance, the Court may, in like manner as under section 56, direct his property or a sufficient part of it to be applied for the purpose aforesaid

Proceedings in lunacy to cease or to be set aside if Court finds that the unsoundness of mind has ceased

60. (1) When any person has been found under this Chapter to be of unsound mind, and it is subsequently shown to the Court that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased the Court may make an order for inquiring whether such person is still of unsound mind and is capable of managing himself and his affairs

(2) The inquiry shall be conducted as far as may be in the manner prescribed in this Chapter for an inquisition into the unsoundness of mind of an alleged lunatic, and if it is found that the unsoundness of mind has ceased, the Court shall order all proceedings in the lunacy to cease or to be set aside on such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem fit

Power of Court to make rules

61. The Court may, from time to time, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Chapter in matters of lunacy

(Part III—Judicial Inquiry as to Lunacy Chapter V—Proceedings in Lunacy outside Presidency towns)

PROCEEDINGS IN LUNACY OUTSIDE PRESIDENCY TOWNS

Inquisition

62. Whenever any person not subject to the jurisdiction of any of the Courts mentioned in section 37 is possessed of property and is alleged to be a lunatic, the District Court within whose jurisdiction such person is residing may upon application, by order direct an inquisition for the purpose of ascertaining whether such person is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs

Power of District Court to institute inquisition as to persons alleged to be lunatic

Lunacy

63. (1) Application for such inquisition may be made by any relative of the alleged lunatic or by any public Curator appointed under the Succession (Property Protection) Act 1841 (hereinafter referred to as the Curator) or by the Government Pleader as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 or if the property of the alleged lunatic consists in whole or in part of land or any interest in land by the Collector of the district in which it is situate

Application by whom to be made

(2) If the property or any part thereof is of such a description that it would by the law in force in any Province where such property is situate subject the proprietor, if disqualified to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards, the application may be made by the Collector on behalf of the Court of Wards

64. The provisions of sections 40 41 and 42 shall regulate the proceedings of the District Court with regard to the matters to which they relate

Regulation of proceedings of District Courts

65. (1) The District Court if it thinks fit may appoint two or more persons to act as assessors to the Court in the said inquisition

Inquisition by District Court and finding thereon

(2) Upon the completion of the inquisition the Court shall determine whether the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs or may come to a special finding that such alleged lunatic is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs but that he is capable of managing himself and is not dangerous to himself or to others

66. (1) If the alleged lunatic resides at a distance of more than fifty miles from the place where the District Court is held to which the application is made, the said Court may issue a Commission to any subordinate Court to make the inquisition and such subordinate Court shall thereupon conduct the inquisition in the manner heretofore provided in this Chapter

by District Court and proceedings thereon

(2) On the completion of the inquisition the subordinate Court shall transmit the record of its proceedings with the opinions of the assessors if assessors have been appointed and its own opinion on the case, and the District Court shall thereupon proceed to dispose of the application in the manner provided in section 65 sub section (2)

Provided that the District Court may direct the subordinate Court to make such further or other inquiries as it thinks fit before disposing of the application

Judicial powers over person and estate of lunatic

Custody of lunatics and management of their estates

67. (1) The Court may make orders for the custody of lunatics so found by inquisition and the management of their estates

(2) When upon the inquisition it is specially found that the person to whom the inquisition relates is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs but that he is capable of managing himself and is not dangerous to himself or to others the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit for the management of the estate of the lunatic including proper provisions for the maintenance of the lunatic and of such members of his family as are dependent on him for maintenance but it shall not be necessary to make any order as to the custody of the person of the lunatic

68 If the estate of a lunatic so found or any part thereof consists of property which by the law for the time being in force subjects the proprietor, if disqualified to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards the Court of Ward shall be authorised to take charge of the same

69 (1) If the estate of a lunatic so found consists in whole or in part of land or any interest in land, but is not of such a nature that it would subject the proprietor if disqualified to the jurisdiction of the Court of Wards the District Court may direct the Collector to take charge of the person and estate of the lunatic

Provided that no such order shall be made without the consent of the Collector previously obtained

(2) The Collector shall thereupon appoint a manager of the estate, and may appoint a guardian of the person of the lunatic

70 All proceedings of the Collector in regard to the person or estate of a lunatic under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the ¹[Provincial Government] or of such authority as it may appoint in this behalf

(Part III—Judicial Inquiry as to Lunacy Chapter 1—Proceedings in Lunacy outside Presidency towns)

71. (1) In all other cases the District Court shall appoint a manager of the estate of the lunatic and may appoint a guardian of his person

Powers of District Court to appoint guardian and manager and take security from manager

Provided that a District Court may, instead of appointing a manager of the estate of a lunatic exercise any of the powers conferred on the High Court under sections 56 and 59

(2) Any person who has been appointed by the District Court or Collector to manage the estate of a lunatic shall if so required enter into a bond in such form and with such sureties as to the Court or the Collector as the case may be may seem fit engaging duly to account for what he may receive in respect of the property of the lunatic

72 The legal heir of a lunatic shall not be appointed to be the guardian of the person of such lunatic unless the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for reasons to be recorded in writing considers that such an appointment is for the benefit of the lunatic

Restriction on appointment of legal heir of lunatic to be guardian of his person

73 A guardian of the person of a lunatic or a manager of his estate appointed under this Chapter shall be paid such allowance if any as the Court or the Collector, as the case may be thinks fit for his care and pains in the execution of his duties

Penetration of managers and 74 (1) The person appointed to be guardian of a lunatic's person shall have the care of his person and maintenance

Duties of guardian

(2) When a distinct guardian is appointed the manager shall pay to the guardian such allowance as may be fixed by the District Court or the Collector as the case may be for the maintenance of the lunatic and such members of his family as are dependent on him for their maintenance

75 (1) Every manager of the estate of a lunatic appointed as aforesaid may exercise the same powers in the management of the estate as might have been exercised by the proprietor if not a lunatic and may collect and pay all just claims debts and liabilities due to or by the estate of the lunatic

Powers of manager

Provided that no manager so appointed shall without the permission of the Court—

- (a) mortgage, charge or transfer by sale gift exchange or other wise any immovable property of the lunatic
- (b) lease any such property for a term exceeding five years

(2) Before granting any such permission the Court may cause notice of the application for such permission to be served on any relative or friend of the lunatic, and may make or cause to be made such inquiries as to the Court may seem necessary in the interests of the lunatic

(Part III—Judicial Inquisition as to Lunacy Chapter V—Proceedings in Lunacy outside Presidency towns)

Manager to furnish inventory and annual accounts

76. (1) Every person appointed by the District Court or by the Collector to be manager of the estate of a lunatic shall, within six months from the date of his appointment, deliver in Court or to the Collector, as the case may be, an inventory of the immovable property belonging to the lunatic and of all such money, or other moveable property, as he may receive on account of the estate, together with a statement of all debts due by or to the same

(2) Every such manager shall also furnish to the Court or to the Collector annually, within three months of the close of the year of the era current in the district, an account of the property in his charge, exhibiting the sums received and disbursed on account of the estate and the balance remaining in his hands

Proceeding if accuracy of inventory or accounts is impugned

77. If any relative of the lunatic, or the Collector by petition to the Court, impugns the accuracy of the said inventory and statement, or of any annual account, the Court may summon the manager and inquire summarily into the matter and make such order thereon as it thinks fit, or the Court, at its discretion may refer any such petition to any subordinate Court or to the Collector if the manager was appointed by the Collector

Payment into public treasury and investment of proceeds of estate

78. All sums received by a manager on account of any estate in excess of what may be required for the current expenses of the lunatic or of the estate, shall be paid into the public treasury on account of the estate and shall be invested from time to time in any of the securities specified in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882, unless the Court or the Collector, as the case may be, for reasons to be recorded in writing, directs that such sums be in the interest of the lunatic otherwise invested or applied

Relative may sue for an account

79. Any relative of a lunatic may with the leave of the District Court sue for an account from any manager appointed under this Chapter, or from any such person after his removal from office or trust, or from his legal representative in case of his death, in respect of any estate then or formerly under his care or management or of any sums of money or other property received by him on account of such estate

Removal of managers and guardians

80. (1) The District Court, for any sufficient cause, may remove any manager appointed by it not being the Curator, and may appoint such Curator or any other fit person in his place and may compel the person so removed to make over the property in his hands to his successor, and to account to such successor for all money received or disbursed by him

(2) The Court may also for any sufficient cause, remove any guardian of the person of the lunatic appointed by it, and may appoint any other fit person in his place

(3) The Collector, for any sufficient cause may remove any manager of the estate of a lunatic or guardian of the person of a lunatic appointed by him, and may appoint any other fit person in place of such manager or guardian, and the District Court, on the application of the Collector, may

compel any manager removed under this section to make over the property and all accounts in his hands to his successor and to account to such successor for all money received or disbursed by him

81. The District Court may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees on any manager of the estate of a lunatic who wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver his accounts or any property in his hands within the time fixed by the Court, and may realize such fine as if it were a sum due under a decree of the Court, and may also commit the recusant to the civil jail until he delivers such accounts or property

Penalty on manager for refusing to deliver accounts or property

82. (1) When any person has been found under this Chapter to be of unsound mind, and it is subsequently shown to the District Court that there is reason to believe that such unsoundness of mind has ceased, such Court may make an order for inquiring whether such person is still of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Trustees' and Mortgagees' Powers Act, 1866, or the Indian Trusts Act, 1882

11. (1) If any property is subject to a trust other than a trust which the Official Trustee is prohibited from accepting under the provisions of this Act, and all the trustees or the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees and all persons beneficially interested in the trust are desirous that the Official Trustee shall be appointed in the room of such trustee or trustees, it shall be lawful for such trustee or trustees, by an instrument in writing to appoint the Official Trustee by that name or any other sufficient description with his consent to be the trustee of such property

Provided that the consent of the Official Trustee shall be recited in the said instrument and that such instrument shall be duly executed by him

(2) Upon such appointment such property shall vest in the Official Trustee and shall be held by him upon the same trusts as the same was held previously to such appointment, and the previous trustee or trustees shall be exempt from all liability as trustees of such property save in respect of acts done before the date of such appointment

12. (1) If any infant or lunatic is entitled to any gift, legacy or share of the assets of a deceased person, it shall be lawful for the person by whom such gift is made, or executor or administrator by whom such legacy or share is payable or transferable or any trustee of such gift, legacy or share, to transfer the same by an instrument in writing to the Official Trustee by that name or any other sufficient description with his consent

Provided that the consent of the Official Trustee shall be recited in the said instrument and that such instrument shall be duly executed by the Official Trustee

(2) Any money or property transferred to the Official Trustee under this section shall vest in him and shall be subject to the same provisions as are contained in this Act as to other property vested in such Official Trustee

13. (1) No Official Trustee shall be required by any Court to enter into any bond or security on his appointment in any capacity under this Act

(2) No Official Trustee or Deputy Official Trustee shall be required to verify otherwise than by his signature any petition presented by him under the provisions of this Act, and if the facts stated in any such petition are not within the Official Trustee's personal knowledge the petition may be verified and subscribed by any person competent to make the verification

14. The entry of the Official Trustee by that name in the books of a company shall not constitute notice of a trust, and a company shall not be entitled to object to enter the name of the Official Trustee on its register by reason only that the Official Trustee is a corporation, and, in dealing with property, the fact that the person dealt with is the Official Trustee shall not of itself constitute notice of a trust

Cost of obtaining administration etc may on revocation be ordered to be paid to Administrator General out of assets

19. If any letters of administration granted to the Administrator General in accordance with the provisions of this Act are revoked the Court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration, and the whole or any part of any fees which would otherwise have been payable under this Act, together with the costs of the Administrator General in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation to be paid to or retained by the Administrator General out of the estate

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of clause (c) of sub section (2) of section 11

After revocation letters granted to Administrator General to be deemed as to him to have been voidable only

20. If any letters of administration granted to the Administrator General in accordance with the provisions of this Act are revoked the same shall, so far as regards the Administrator General and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof be deemed to have been only voidable, except as to any act done by any such Administrator General or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a will or of any other fact which would render such letters void

Provided that no notice of a will or of any other fact which would render any such letters void shall affect the Administrator General or any person acting under his authority in pursuance of such letters unless within the period of one month from the time of giving such notice, proceedings are commenced to prove the will or to cause the letters to be revoked, and such proceedings are prosecuted without unreasonable delay

Payments made by Administrator General prior to revocation

21. If any letters of administration granted to the Administrator General in accordance with the provisions of this Act are revoked, upon the grant of probate of a will, or upon the grant of letters of administration with a copy of the will annexed, all payments made or acts done by or under the authority of the Administrator General in pursuance of such letters of administration, prior to the revocation, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with a copy of such will annexed, shall be deemed valid notwithstanding such revocation

Application to Court for confirming order

56. Where a company has passed ^{2*} a resolution for reducing share capital, it may apply by petition to the Court for an order confirming the reduction

Addition to name of company of "and reduced "

57. On and from the ³[passing] by a company of a resolution for reducing share capital, or where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid up share capital, then on and from ⁴[the making of the order confirming the reduction], the company shall add to its name, until such date as the Court may fix, the words "and reduced" as the last words in its name, and those words shall, until that date, be deemed to be part of the name of the company

Provided that, where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid up share capital, the Court may, if it thinks expedient, dispense altogether with the addition of the words "and reduced"

Objections by creditors and settlement of list of objecting creditors

58. (1) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital, or the payment to any shareholder of any paid up share capital, and in any other case if the Court so directs, every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the Court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction

(2) The Court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction

Power to dispense with consent of creditor on security being given for his debt

59. Where a creditor entered on the list of creditors whose debt or claim is not discharged or determined does not consent to the reduction, the Court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the Court may direct, the following amount (that is to say),—

- (i) if the company admits the full amount of his debt or claim, or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim,

- (b) with respect to every misleading or untrue statement purporting to be a statement by or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a report or valuation of an expert that it fairly represented the statement or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation Provided that the director, person named as director promoter or person who authorised the issue of the prospectus shall be liable to pay compensation as aforesaid if it is proved that he had no reasonable ground to believe that the person making the statement, report or valuation was competent to make it, and

- (c) with respect to every misleading or untrue statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a public official document, that it was a correct and fair representation of the statement or copy of or extract from the document, or unless it is proved—

- (i) that having consented to become a director of the company he withdrew his consent before the issue of the prospectus, and that it was issued without his authority or consent, or
- (ii) that the prospectus was issued without his knowledge or consent and that on becoming aware of its issue, he forthwith gave a reasonable public notice that it was issued without his knowledge or consent, or
- (iii) that, after the issue of the prospectus and before allotment thereunder, he, on becoming aware of any misleading or untrue statement therein, withdrew his consent thereto, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal, and of the reason therefor

(2) Where a company existing at the commencement of this Act has issued shares or debentures, and for the purpose of obtaining further capital by subscriptions for shares or debentures issues a prospectus a director shall not be liable in respect of any statement therein unless he has authorised the issue of the prospectus or has adopted or ratified it

(3) Where the prospectus contains the name of a person as a director of the company, or as having agreed to become a director thereof, and he has not consented to become a director or has withdrawn his consent before the issue of the prospectus and has not authorised or consented to the issue thereof, the directors of the company, except any without whose knowledge or consent the prospectus was issued, and any other person who authorised the issue thereof, shall be liable to indemnify the person named as aforesaid against all damages, costs and expenses to which he may be made liable by reason of his name having been inserted in the prospectus, or in defending himself against any suit or legal proceedings brought against him in respect thereof

(4) Every person who, by reason of his being a director or named as a director, or as having agreed to become a director, or of his having authorised the issue of the prospectus becomes liable to make any payment under this section, may recover contribution, as in cases of contract, from any other person who if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment, unless the person who has become so liable was, and that other person was not, guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation

(Part IV — Management and Administration)

(5) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the expression "promoter" means a promoter who was a party to the preparation of the prospectus, or the portion thereof containing the misleading or untrue statement, but does not include any person by reason of his acting in a professional capacity for persons engaged in procuring the formation of the company,
- (b) the expression "expert" includes engineer, valuer, accountant and any other person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him

Allotment

101. [(1) No allotment shall be made of any share capital of a company offered to the public for subscription unless the amount stated in the prospectus is the minimum amount which in the opinion of the directors must be raised by the issue of share capital in order to provide the sums or, if any part thereof is to be defrayed in any other manner, the balance of the sum required to be provided in respect of the matters specified in sub section (2) has been subscribed, and the sum of at least five per cent thereof has been paid to or received in cash by the company

Restriction as to allotment.

(2) The matters for which provision for the raising of a minimum amount of share capital must be made by the directors are the following, namely —

- (a) the purchase price of any property purchased or to be purchased which is to be defrayed in whole or in part out of the proceeds of the issue,
- (b) any preliminary expenses payable by the company and any commission so payable to any person in consideration of his agreeing to subscribe for or of his procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions for any shares in the company,
- (c) the repayment of any moneys borrowed by the company in respect of any of the foregoing matters, and
- (d) working capital

(2A) The amount referred to in sub section (1) as the amount stated in the prospectus shall be reckoned exclusively of any amount payable otherwise than in cash and is in this Act referred to as the minimum subscription

(2B) All moneys received from applicants for shares shall be deposited and kept in a scheduled bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, until returned in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) or until the certificate to commence business is obtained under section 103

a vendor to promoter of or other person who receives payment in money or shares from a company shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to apply any part of the money or shares so received in payment of any commission the payment of which if made directly by the company, would have been legal under this section

shares at a discount

Provided that—

- (a) the issue of the shares at a discount must be authorised by resolution passed in general meeting of the company and must be sanctioned by the Court,
- (b) the resolution must specify the maximum rate of discount (not exceeding ten per cent in any case) at which shares are to be issued
- (c) not less than one year must at the date of issue have elapsed since the date on which the company was entitled to commence business
- (d) the shares to be issued at a discount must be issued within six months after the date on which the issue is sanctioned by the Court or within such extended time as the Court may allow

(2) Every prospectus relating to the issue of the shares and every balance-sheet issued by the company subsequently to the issue of the shares must contain particulars of the discount allowed on the issue of the shares or of so much of that discount as has not been written off at the date of the issue of the document in question

(3) If default is made in complying with sub section (2) the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees]

shares

¹[105B (1) Subject to the provisions of this section a company limited by shares may if so authorised by its articles issue preference shares which are or at the option of the company are to be liable to be redeemed

Provided that—

- (a) no such shares shall be redeemed except out of profits of the company which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the redemption or out of sale proceeds of any property of the company
- (b) no such shares shall be redeemed unless they are fully paid

(Part IV —Management and Administration)

(c) where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, there shall out of profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend be transferred to a reserve fund, to be called "the capital redemption reserve fund", a sum equal to the amount applied to redeeming the shares, and the provisions of this Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a company shall, except as provided in this section, apply as if the capital redemption reserve fund were paid up share capital of the company,

(d) where any such shares are redeemed out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, the premium, if any, payable on redemption must have been provided for out of the profits of the company before the shares are redeemed

(2) There shall be included in every balance sheet of a company which has issued redeemable preference shares a statement specifying what part of the issued capital of the company consists of such shares and the date on or before which those shares are, or are to be, liable to be redeemed or, where no definite date is fixed for redemption, the period of notice to be given for redemption

If a company fails to comply with the provisions of this sub section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees

(3) Subject to the provisions of this section, the redemption of preference shares thereunder may be effected on such terms and in such manner as may be provided by the articles of the company

(4) Where in pursuance of this section a company has redeemed or is about to redeem any preference shares, it shall have power to issue shares up to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed or to be redeemed as if those shares had never been issued, and accordingly the share capital of the company shall not for the purpose of calculating the fees payable under section 249 be deemed to be increased by the issue of shares in pursuance of this sub section

Provided that, where new shares are issued before the redemption of the old shares, the new shares shall not, so far as relates to stamp duty, be deemed to have been issued in pursuance of this sub section unless the old shares are redeemed within one month after the issue of the new shares

(5) Where new shares have been issued in pursuance of the last foregoing sub section, the capital redemption reserve fund may, notwithstanding anything in this section, be applied by the company, up to an amount equal to the nominal amount of the shares so issued, in paying up unissued shares of the company to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares]

Provided that the Court on being satisfied that the failure to comply with the conditions was accidental or due to inadvertence or to some other sufficient cause, or that on other grounds it is just and equitable to grant relief, may on the application of the company or any other person interested and on such terms and conditions as seem to the Court just and expedient, order that the company be relieved from such consequences as aforesaid]

Preliminary

155 (1) The winding up of a company may be either—

Modes of winding up.

- (i) by the Court or
- (ii) voluntary or
- (iii) subject to the supervision of the Court

(2) The provisions of this Act with respect to winding up apply, unless the contrary appears to the winding up of a company in any of these modes

Contributories

156 (1) In the event of a company being wound up every present and past member shall subject to the provisions of this section be liable to contribute to the assets of the company to an amount sufficient for payment of its debts and liabilities and the costs charges and expenses of the winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves with the qualifications following (that is to say) —

Liability as contributories of present and past members.

- (i) a past member shall not be liable to contribute if he has ceased to be a member for one year or upwards before the commencement of the winding up,
- (ii) a past member shall not be liable to contribute in respect of any debt, or liability of the company contracted after he ceased to be a member,

(Part V—Winding up)

- (iii) a past member shall not be liable to contribute unless it appears to the Court that the existing members are unable to satisfy the contributions required to be made by them in pursuance of this Act,
- (iv) in the case of a company limited by shares, no contribution shall be required from any member exceeding the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares in respect to which he is liable as a present or past member,
- (v) in the case of a company limited by guarantee, no contribution shall be required from any member exceeding the amount undertaken to be contributed by him to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up,
- (vi) nothing in this Act shall invalidate any provision contained in any policy of insurance or other contract whereby the liability of individual members on the policy or contract is restricted, or whereby the funds of the company are alone made liable in respect of the policy or contract,
- (vii) a sum due to any member of a company in his character of a member, by way of dividends, profits or otherwise, shall not be deemed to be a debt of the company payable to that member in a case of competition between himself and any other creditor not a member of the company, but any such sum may be taken into account for the purpose of the final adjustments of the rights of the contributories among themselves

(2) In the winding up of a company limited by guarantee which has a share capital every member of the company shall be liable, in addition to the amount undertaken to be contributed by him to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up, to contribute to the extent of any sums unpaid on any shares held by him

157. In the winding up of a limited company any director whether past or present, whose liability is, in pursuance of this Act, unlimited shall, in addition to his liability (if any) to contribute as an ordinary member, be liable to make a further contribution as if he were at the commencement of the winding up a member of an unlimited company

- (i) a past director shall not be liable to make such further contribution if he has ceased to hold office for a year or upwards before the commencement of the winding up,
- (ii) a past director shall not be liable to make such further contribution in respect of any debt or liability of the company contracted after he ceased to hold office,
- (iii) subject to the articles a director shall not be liable to make such further contribution unless the Court deems it necessary to require that contribution in order to satisfy the debts and

Provided that it shall be a good defence to a charge under any of clauses (b) (c), (d) (f) (n) and (o) if the accused proves that he had no intent to defraud and to a charge under any of clauses (a), (h), (i) and (j) if he proves that he had no intent to conceal the state of affairs of the company or to defeat the law

(2) Where any person pawns pledges or disposes of any property in circumstances which amount to an offence under clause (o) of sub section (1) every person who takes in pawn or pledge or otherwise receives the property knowing it to be pawned, pledged or disposed of in such circumstances as aforesaid shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years]

239. (1) Where by this Act the Court is authorised in relation to winding up to have regard to the wishes of creditors or contributories, as proved to it by any sufficient evidence, the Court may, if it thinks fit for the purpose of ascertaining those wishes, direct meetings of the creditors or contributories to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the Court directs and may appoint a person to act as chairman of any such meeting and to report the result thereof to the Court

(2) In the case of creditors, regard shall be had to the value of each creditor's debt.

(Part V—Winding up)

(3) In the case of contributories regard shall be had to the number of votes conferred on each contributory by the articles

240. Where any company is being wound up all documents of the company and of the liquidators shall as between the contributories of the company, be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters purporting to be therein recorded

Documents of company to be evidence

241. After an order for a winding up by or subject to the supervision of the Court the Court may make such order for inspection by creditors and contributories of the company of its documents as the Court thinks just and any documents in the possession of the company may be inspected by creditors or contributories accordingly but not further or otherwise

Inspection of documents

242 (1) When a company has been wound up and is about to be dissolved the documents of the company and of the liquidators may be disposed of as follows (that is to say) —

Disposal of documents of company

(a) in the case of a winding up by or subject to the supervision of the Court in such way as the Court directs,

(b) in the case of a voluntary winding up, in such way as the company by extraordinary resolution directs

(2) After three years from the dissolution of the company, no responsibility shall rest on the company or the liquidators, or any person to whom the custody of the documents has been committed, by reason of the same not being forthcoming to any person claiming to be interested therein

243 (1) Where a company has been dissolved, the Court may at any time within two years of the date of the dissolution, on an application being made for the purpose by the liquidator of the company or by any other person who appears to the Court to be interested make an order, upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, declaring the dissolution to have been void, and thereupon such proceedings may be taken as might have been taken if the company had not been dissolved

Power of Court to declare dissolution of company void

(2) It shall be the duty of the person on whose application the order was made within twenty one days after the making of the order, to file with the registrar a certified copy of the order, and if that person fails so to do, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every day during which the default continues

244 (1) Where a company is being wound up, if the winding up is not concluded within one year after its commencement, the liquidator shall, [once in each year and at intervals of not more than twelve months] until the winding up is concluded, [file in Court or with the registrar, as the case may be] a statement in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars with respect to the proceedings in and position of the liquidation

PART VII

APPLICATION OF ACT TO COMPANIES FORMED AND REGISTERED UNDER FORMER COMPANIES ACTS

Application
companies formed under former
Acts

250. In the application of this Act to existing companies, it shall apply in the same manner in the case of a limited company, other than a company limited by guarantee, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Act as a company limited by shares, in the case of a company limited by guarantee, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Act as a company limited by guarantee, and, in the case of a company, other than a limited company, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Act as an unlimited company

Provided that—

- (1) nothing in Table A in the First Schedule shall apply to a company formed and registered under Act XIX of 1857 and Act VII of 1860, or either of them, or under the Indian Companies Act, 1882, or the Indian Companies Act, 1886, X of 1886, or the Indian Companies Act, 1882, VI of 1886,
- (2) reference, express or implied, to the date of registration shall be construed as a reference to the date at which the company was registered under Act No XIX of 1857 and Act No VII of 1860, or either of them, or under the Indian Companies Act, X of 1886, or the Indian Companies Act, 1882, as the case may be VI of 1886,

(Part VII — Application of Act to Companies formed and registered under former Companies Acts Part VIII — Companies authorised to register under this Act)

251. This Act shall apply to every company registered but not formed under Act No XIX of 1857 and Act No VII of 1860 or either of them, or under the Indian Companies Act 1866, or the Indian Companies Act, 1882, in the same manner as it is hereinafter in this Act declared to apply to companies registered but not formed under former Companies Acts

Provided that reference express or implied, to the date of registration shall be construed as a reference to the date at which the company was registered under the said Acts or any of them

252. A company registered under Act XIX of 1857 and Act VII of 1860 or either of them may cause its shares to be transferred in the manner hitherto in use or in such other manner as the company may direct

COMPANIES AUTHORISED TO REGISTER UNDER THIS ACT

253 (1) With the exceptions and subject to the provisions mentioned and contained in this section —

- (i) any company consisting of seven or more members which was in existence on the first day of May eighteen hundred and eighty two including any company registered under Act No XIX of 1857 and Act No VII of 1860 or either of them and
- (ii) any company formed after the date aforesaid whether before or after the commencement of this Act, in pursuance of any Act of Parliament or ¹[Indian law] other than this Act, or of Letters Patent or being otherwise duly constituted according to law and consisting of seven or more members, may at any time register under this Act as an unlimited company or as a company limited by shares, or as a company limited by guarantee, and the registration shall not be invalid by reason that it has taken place with a view to the company being wound up thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company, shall have the meanings so defined, and words importing the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words importing persons shall include bodies corporate

Business

2. The directors shall have regard to the restrictions on the commencement of business imposed by section 103 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, if, and so far as, those restrictions are binding upon the company

Shares

3. Subject to the provisions, if any, in that behalf of the memorandum of association of the company, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing shares in the company, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of share capital, or otherwise as the company may from time to time by special resolution determine ¹[and any preference share may with the sanction of a special resolution be issued on the terms that it is or at the option of the company is liable to be redeemed]

4. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may ¹[subject to the provisions of section 66A of the Indian Companies Act, 1913] be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third of the issued shares of the class

5. No share shall be offered to the public for subscription except upon the terms that the amount payable on application shall be at least five per cent of the nominal amount of the share, and the directors shall, as regards any allotment of shares, duly comply with such of the provisions of sections 101 and 104 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 as may be applicable thereto

6. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall, without payment, be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that in respect of a share or shares held

(The First Schedule—Table A—Regulations for Management of a Company limited by Shares)

jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all

7. If a share certificate is defaced lost or destroyed it may be renewed on payment of such fee if any not exceeding eight annas and on such terms, if any as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit

8 [Except to the extent allowed by section 51A of the Indian Companies Act, 1913] no part of the funds of the company shall be employed in the purchase of, or in loans upon the security of the company's shares

Lien

9 The company shall have a lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share and the company shall also have a lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause The company's lien if any on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon

10 The company may sell in such manner as the director thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled by reason of his death or insolvency to the share

11 The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or in validity in the proceedings in reference to the sale

Calls on shares

12 The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares provided that no call shall exceed one fourth of the nominal amount of the share or be payable at less than one month from the last call and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times of payments) pay to the company at the time or times so specified the amount called on his shares

13 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof

14 If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of five per cent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part

15 The provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified

16 The directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment

17 The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the company in general meeting, six per cent) as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the directors

Transfer and transmission of shares

18. The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof

19 Shares in the company shall be transferred in the following form, or in any usual or common form which the directors shall approve

I, A B of _____, in consideration of the sum of rupees _____ paid to me by C D of _____ (hereinafter called 'the said transferee'), do hereby transfer to the said transferee the share [or shares] numbered in the undertaking called the _____ Company, Limited, to hold unto the said transferee his executors administrators and assigns, subject to the several conditions on which I held the same at the time of the execution thereof, and I, the said transferee do hereby agree to take the said share [or shares] subject to the conditions aforesaid As witness our hands the day of _____

Witness to the signatures of, etc

20 The directors may decline to register any transfer of shares not being fully paid shares, to a person of whom they do not approve, and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien. The directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year. The directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless—

- (a) a fee not exceeding two rupees is paid to the company in respect thereof, and
- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer

[If the directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal.]

21 The executors or administrators of a deceased sole holder of a share shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor or the executors or administrators of the deceased survivor, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to the share.

22 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the directors, have the right either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent person could have made, but the directors shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or insolvent person before the death or insolvency.

23 A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

Forfeiture of shares

24 If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the directors may, at any time thereafter

during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued

25 The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days, from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that, in the event of non payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited

26 If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect

27 A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit

28 A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall notwithstanding remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company received payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares

29 A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and that declaration, and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any, given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof, shall constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share

30 The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified

Conversion of shares into stock

31 The directors may, with the sanction of the company previously given in general meeting convert any paid up shares into stock, and may with the like sanction reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination

(The First Schedule—Table A—Regulations for Management of a Company limited by Shares)

32 The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit but the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose

33 The holders of stock shall according to the amount of the stock held by them have the same rights privileges and advantages as regards dividends voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock as would not if existing in shares have conferred that privilege or advantage

34 Such of the regulations of the company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock and the words share and share holder therein shall include stock and stockholder

Share warrants

35 The company may issue share warrants and accordingly the directors may in their discretion with respect to any share which is fully paid up on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share and authenticated by such evidence (if any) as the directors may from time to time require as to the identity of the person signing the request and on receiving the certificate (if any) of the share and the amount of the stamp duty on the warrant and such fee as the directors may from time to time require issue under the company's seal a warrant duly stamped stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares therein specified and may provide by coupons or otherwise for the payment of dividends or other moneys on the shares included in the warrant

36 A share warrant shall entitle the bearer to the shares included in it and the share shall be transferred by the delivery of the share warrant and the provisions of the regulations of the company with respect to transfer and transmission of shares shall not apply thereto

37 The bearer of a share warrant shall on surrender of the warrant to the company for cancellation and on payment of such sum as the directors may from time to time prescribe be entitled to have his name entered as a member in the register of members in respect of the shares included in the warrant

38 The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the company and so long as the warrant remains so deposited the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a meeting of the company and of attending and voting and exercising the other

privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiration of two clear days from the time of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the deposited warrant. Not more than one person shall be recognised as depositor of the share warrant. The company shall, on two days' written notice, return the deposited share-warrant to the depositor.

39 Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided, no person shall, as bearer of a share warrant, sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the company, or attend, or vote or exercise any other privilege of a member at a meeting of the company, or be entitled to receive any notices from the company, but the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in all other respects to the same privileges and advantages as if he were named in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the company.

40 The directors may, from time to time, make rules as to the terms on which (if they shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss or destruction.

Alteration of Capital

41 The directors may, with the sanction of ¹[the company in general meeting], increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

42 Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital all new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer if not accepted will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently offered under this article.

43 The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.

General Meetings

45 The statutory general meeting of the company shall be held within the period required by section 77 of the Indian Companies Act 1913

46 A general meeting shall be held ¹[within eighteen months from the date of its incorporation and thereafter once at least in every year] at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the company's incorporation occurs and at such place as the directors shall appoint. In default of a general meeting being so held, a general meeting shall be held in the month next following and may be called by any two members in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be called by the directors.

47 The above mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meeting, all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary 48 The directors may whenever they think fit call an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be called on such requisition, or in default may be called by such requisitionists as provided by section 78 of the Indian Companies Act 1913. If at any time there are not within British India sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum any director or any two members of the company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be called by the directors

Proceedings at General Meeting

49 ¹[Subject to the provisions of sub section (2) of section 81 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, relating to special resolutions] fourteen days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting to such persons as are, under ¹[the Indian Companies Act, 1913 or] the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company, but ²[the accidental omission to give notice to or the non receipt of notice] by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting

50 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting with the exception of sanctioning a dividend the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors

51 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business, save as herein otherwise provided ³[two members in the case of a private company and five members in the case of any other company] personally present shall be a quorum

52 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if called upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved, in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum

53 The chairman if any, of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company

54 If there is no such chairman or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairman the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman

55 The chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted.

at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

56 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least three members, and unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

57 If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

58 In the case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

59 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.

Votes of Members

60 On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote. ¹[On a poll every member shall have one vote in respect of each share or each hundred rupees of stock held by him]

61 In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

62 A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

63 No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

64 On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. Provided that no company shall vote by proxy as long as a resolution of its directors in accordance with the provisions of section 80 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, is in force.

65 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation either under the common seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. No person shall act as a proxy unless [he is a member of the company].

66 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any), under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than seventy two hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

67. An instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form, or in any other form which the directors shall approve —

Company, Limited

"I of in the district of , being a member of the Company, Limited, hereby appoint of as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the [ordinary or extraordinary, as the case may be] general meeting of the company to be held on the day of and at any adjournment thereof"

Signed this day of .

Directors

68 The number of the directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined in writing by a majority of the subscribers of the memorandum of association.

69 The remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by the company in general meeting

70 The qualification of a director shall be the holding of at least one share in the company, and it shall be his duty to comply with the provisions of section 85 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913

Powers and duties of Directors

¹ Subs. for the original words by the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1936 (22] of 1936) s. 122.

and may exercise all such powers of the company as are not, by the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, or by these articles, required to be exercised by the company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulation of these articles, to the provisions of the said Act, and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made

72 The directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to the office of managing director or manager for such term, and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary, or commission, or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as they may think fit, and a director so appointed shall not, while holding that office, be subject to retirement by rotation or taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of directors, but his appointment shall be subject to determination ipso facto if he ceases from any cause to be a director, or if the company in general meeting resolve that his tenure of the office of managing director or manager be determined

73 The amount for the time being remaining undischarged of moneys borrowed or raised by the directors for the purposes of the company (otherwise than by the issue of share capital) shall not at any time exceed the issued share capital of the company without the sanction of the company in general meeting

74 The directors shall duly comply with the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, and in particular with the provisions in regard to the registration of the particulars of mortgages and charges affecting the property of the company or created by it, and to keeping a register of the directors and to sending to the registrar an annual list of members, and a summary of particulars relating thereto and notice of any consolidation or increase of share capital, or conversion of shares into stock, and copies of special resolutions and a copy of the register of directors and notifications of any changes therein

75 The director shall cause minutes to be made in books provided for the purpose—

- (a) of all appointments of officers made by the directors,
- (b) of the names of the directors present at each meeting of the directors and of any committee of the directors,
- (c) of all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the company, and, of the directors, and of committees of directors, and every director present at any meeting of directors or committee of directors shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose

The Seal

76 The seal of the company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the board of directors, and in the presence of at least two directors and of the secretary or such other person as the directors may appoint for the purpose, and those two directors and secretary or other person as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the seal of the company is so affixed in their presence

Disqualifications of Directors

77 The office of director shall be vacated if the director—

- ¹[(a)] fails to obtain within the time specified in sub section (1) of section 84 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or at any time thereafter ceases to hold, the share qualification, if any necessary for his appointment, or
- (b) is found to be of unsound mind by a Court of competent jurisdiction, or
- (c) is adjudged insolvent, or
- (d) fails to pay calls made on him in respect of shares held by him within six months from the date of such calls being made, or
- (e) without the sanction of the company in general meeting accepts or holds any office of profit under the company other than that of a managing director or manager or a legal or technical adviser or a banker, or
- (f) absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the directors or from all meetings of the directors for a continuous period of three months, whichever is longer, without leave of absence from the board of directors, or
- (g) accepts a loan from the company, or]
- "[(h)] is concerned or participates in the profits of any contract with the company, or
- "[(i)] is punished with imprisonment for a term exceeding six months

Provided, however, that no director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a member of any company which has entered into contracts with, or done any work for, the company of which he is director, but a director shall not vote in respect of any such contract or work, and if he does so vote, his vote shall not be counted

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION TO ACCOMPANY PRECEDING MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

Number of Members

1 The company for the purpose of registration is declared to consist of five hundred members

2 The directors hereinafter mentioned may, whenever the business or the association requires it, register an increase of members

Definition of Members

3 Every person shall be deemed to have agreed to become a member of the company who insures any ship or share in a ship in pursuance of the regulations hereinafter contained

General Meetings

4 The first general meeting shall be held at such time not being less than one month nor more than three months after the incorporation of the company, and at such place, as the directors may determine.

(The Third Schedule —Form B)

5 A general meeting shall be held once in every year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the company's incorporation occurs, and at such place, as the directors shall appoint. In default of a general meeting being so held, a general meeting shall be held in the month next following, and may be called by any two members in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be called by the directors.

6 The above-mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings, all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

7. The directors may, whenever they think fit, and shall, on a requisition made in writing by any five or more members, call an extraordinary general meeting.

8 Any requisition made by the members must state the object of the meeting proposed to be called, and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the Company.

9 On receipt of the requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to call a general meeting. If they do not proceed to cause a meeting to be held within twenty one days from the date of the requisition being so deposited, the requisitionists or any other five members may themselves call a meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

10 Fourteen days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of the business, shall be given to the members in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, but the non receipt of such a notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

11 All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting, and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, and the fixing of remuneration of the auditors.

12 No business shall be transacted at any meeting except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of members is present at the commencement of the business. The quorum shall be ascertained as follows (that is to say) — if the members of the company at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be five, if they exceed ten, there shall be added to the above quorum one for every five additional members with this limitation, that no quorum shall in any case exceed ten.

13 If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of members is not present, the meeting if called on the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved, in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum of members is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die

14 The chairman (if any) of the directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company.

15 If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present at the time of holding the same, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of that meeting

16 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place

17 At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least three members a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

18 If a poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded

19 Every member shall have one vote and no more

20 If any member is a lunatic or idiot, he may vote by his committee or other legal guardian

21 No member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless all moneys due from him to the company have been paid

22 On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. Provided that no company shall vote by proxy as long as a resolution of its directors in accordance with the provisions of section 80 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, is in force. A proxy shall be appointed in writing under the hand of the appointor, or, if such appointor is a corporation, under its common seal

23 (1) No person shall act as a proxy unless he is a member, or unless he is appointed to act at the meeting as proxy for a corporation

(2) The instrument appointing him shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than forty eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote.

(The Third Schedule —Form B)

24 Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form —

Company, Limited

I, _____, of _____, being a Member of the Company, Limited, hereby appoint _____ of _____ as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the [ordinary or extraordinary, as the case may be] general meeting of the company to be held on the day of _____ and at any adjournment thereof

25 The number of the directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined by the subscribers of the memorandum of association

26 Until directors are appointed, the subscribers of the memorandum of association shall, for all the purposes of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, be deemed to be directors

Powers of Directors

27 The business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all such powers of the company as are not by the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or by any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, or by these articles required to be exercised by the company in general meeting, but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made

Elections of Directors

28 The directors shall be elected annually by the company in general meeting

Business of Company

Audit

29 Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 144 and 145 of the Indian Companies Act 1913 or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force and for this purpose the said sections shall have effect as if the word 'members' were substituted for "shareholders," and as if "first general meeting" were substituted for "statutory meeting".

(The Third Schedule —Forms B and C)Notices

30 A notice may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him to his registered address

31 Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice and unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post

REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

1 No person shall be deemed to have accepted any share in the Company unless he has testified his acceptance thereof by writing under his hand in such form as the Company from time to time directs.

2 The Company may from time to time make such calls upon the shareholders in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares as they think fit provided that twenty-one days notice at least is given of each call and each shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of calls so made to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Company.

3 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing such call was passed.

4 If before or on the day appointed for payment any shareholder does not pay the amount of any call to which he is liable then such shareholder shall be liable to pay interest for the same at the rate of 5 per cent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.

5 The Company may if they think fit receive from any of the shareholders willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys due upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the moneys so paid in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made the Company may pay interest at such rate as the shareholder paying such sum in advance and the Company agree upon.

6 If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for any dividend payable in respect of such share.

7 The Company may decline to register any transfer of shares made by a shareholder who is indebted to them.

8 Every shareholder shall on payment of such sum not exceeding eight annas as the Company may prescribe be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the Company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon.

9 If such certificate is worn out or lost it may be renewed on payment of such sum not exceeding eight annas as the Company may prescribe.

Transmission of Shares

11 The executors or administrators or representatives of a deceased shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his share

12 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any shareholder or in consequence of the marriage of any female shareholder or in any way other than by transfer may be registered as a shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Company

13 Any person who has become entitled to a share in any way other than by transfer may instead of being registered himself elect to have some person to be named by him registered as a holder of such share

14 The person so becoming entitled shall testify such election by executing to his nominee a transfer of such share

15 The instrument of transfer shall be presented to the Company accompanied with such evidence as they may require to prove the title of the transferor and thereupon the Company shall register the transferee as a share holder

Forfeiture of Shares

16 If any shareholder fails to pay any call due on the appointed day the Company may at any time thereafter during such time as the call remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring him to pay such call together with any interest that may have accrued by reason of such non payment

17 The notice shall name a further date and a place or places being a place or places at which calls on the Company are usually made payable on and at which such call is to be paid it shall also state that in the event of non payment at the time and place appointed the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited

18 If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any share in respect of which such notice has been given may be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect

19 Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be disposed of in such manner as the Company thinks fit

20 Any shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay to the Company all calls owing upon such shares at the time of the forfeiture

Increase in Capital

21 The Company may with the sanction of the Company previously given in general meeting increase its capital

22 Any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital and shall be subject to the same provisions in all

respects, whether with reference to the payment of calls, or the forfeiture of shares on non payment of calls or otherwise, as if it had been part of the original capital

General Meetings.

23 The first general meeting shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company, and at such place as the directors may determine

24 Subsequent general meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, and if no other time or place is prescribed, a general meeting shall be held on the [first Monday in February] in every year, at such place as may be determined by the directors

25 The above mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings, all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary

26 The directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall, upon a requisition made in writing by any number of shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than one fifth part of the shares of the Company, convene an extraordinary general meeting.

27 Any requisition so made by the shareholders shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left at the registered office of the Company

28 Upon the receipt of such requisition, the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting, if they do not proceed to convene the same within twenty one days from the date of the requisition the requisitionists, or any other shareholders holding the required number of shares, may themselves convene a meeting

29 Seven days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the time, the hour of meeting, and the purpose for which any general meeting is to be held, shall be given by advertisement, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company

30 Any shareholder may, on giving not less than three days' previous notice, submit any resolution to a meeting beyond the matters contained in the notice given of such meeting

31 The notice required of a shareholder shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company

32 No business shall be transacted at any meeting, except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of shareholders is present at the commencement of such business, and such quorum shall be ascertained as follows (that is to say), if the shareholders belonging to the Company at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be five, if they exceed ten, there shall be added to the above quorum one for every five additional shareholders up to fifty, and one for every ten additional shareholders after

fifty, with this limitation that it shall not be necessary for any quorum in any case to exceed forty.

33 If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of shareholders is not present the meeting if convened upon the requisition of the shareholders shall be dissolved in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the following day at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting the required number of shareholders is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.

34 The chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the Company.

35 If there is no such chairman or if at any meeting he is not present at the time of holding the same, the shareholders present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

36 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

37 At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least five shareholders, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

38 If a poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in general meeting.

Votes of Shareholders

39 Every shareholder shall have one vote for every share up to ten, he shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every ten shares held by him beyond the first hundred shares.

40 If any shareholder is a lunatic or idiot, he may vote by his committee, and if any shareholder is a minor, he may vote by his guardian, or any one of his guardians if more than one.

41 If more persons than one are jointly entitled to a share or shares the person whose name stands first in the register of shareholders as one of the holders of such share or shares, and no other, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same.

42 No shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless all calls due from him have been paid nor until he shall have been possessed of his shares three calendar months, unless such shares shall have been acquired or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such shares.

43 Votes may be given either personally or by proxies, a proxy shall be appointed in writing under the hand of the appointor, or, if such appointor is a corporation, under their common seal

44 No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a shareholder, and the instrument appointing him shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote, but no instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution

45 The number of the directors, and the names of the first directors shall be determined by the subscribers of the memorandum of association

46 Until directors are appointed, the subscribers of the memorandum of association shall for all the purposes of this Act be deemed to be directors

Powers of Directors

47 The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by this Act or by the articles of association (if any) declared to be exercisable by the Company in general meeting subject nevertheless to any regulations of the articles of association to the provisions of this Act, and to such regulations not being inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made

48 The office of director shall be vacated—

if he holds any other office or place of profit under the Company,

if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent,

if he is concerned in or participates in the profits of any contract with the Company,

if he participates in the profits of any work done for the Company

But the above rules shall be subject to the following exceptions—that no director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a shareholder in any incorporated Company which has entered into contracts with or done any work for the Company of which he is director, nevertheless he shall not vote in respect of such contract or work, and, if he does so vote, his vote shall not be counted, and he shall incur a penalty, not exceeding five hundred rupees

(Appendix I —Table B in Schedule to Act XIX of 1857)Rotation of Directors

49 At the first ordinary meeting after the incorporation of the Company the whole of the directors shall retire from office, and at the first ordinary meeting in every subsequent year one third of the directors for the time being or, if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to one third, shall retire from office

50 The one third or other nearest number to retire during the first and second years ensuing the incorporation of the Company shall unless the directors agree among themselves be determined by ballot in every subsequent year the one third or other nearest number who have been longest in office shall retire

51 A retiring director shall be re eligible

52 The Company at the general meeting at which any directors retire in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacated offices by electing a like number of persons

53 If at any meeting at which an election of directors ought to take place no such election is made the meeting shall stand adjourned till the next day, at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting no election takes place the former directors shall continue to act until new directors are appointed at the first ordinary meeting of the following year

54 The Company may from time to time in general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors and may also determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office

55 Any casual vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled up by the directors but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred

Proceedings of Directors

56 The directors may meet together for the despatch of business adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes in case of an equality of votes the chairman in addition to his original vote shall have a casting vote, a director may at any time summon a meeting of the directors

57 The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office but if no such chairman is elected or if at any meeting the chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same the directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting

58 The directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on them by the directors

59 A committee may elect a chairman of their meetings if no such chairman is elected, or if he is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting

60 A committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper questions at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equal division of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote

61 All acts done by any meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors or by any person acting as a director, shall notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director

- (1) of all appointments of officers made by the directors
- (2) of the names of the directors present at each meeting of directors and committees of directors,
- (3) of all orders made by the directors and committees of directors, and
- (4) of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Company, and of the directors and committees of directors

And any such minute as aforesaid if signed by any person purporting to be the chairman of any meeting of directors or committee of directors, shall be receivable in evidence without any further proof

63 The Company, in general meeting, may, by a special resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office and appoint another qualified person in his stead, the person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed

Dividends

64 The directors may, with the sanction of the Company in general meeting, declare a dividend to be paid to the shareholders in proportion to their shares

65 The directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sum as they think proper as a reserved fund to meet contingencies or for equalizing dividends or for reparing or maintaining the works connected with the business of the Company, or any part thereof, and the directors may invest the sum so set apart as a reserved fund upon such securities as they, with the sanction of the Company, may select

(Appendix I—Table B in Schedule to Act VII of 1877)

66 The directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise

67 Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to each shareholder or sent by post or otherwise to his registered place of abode, and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared may be forfeited by the directors for the benefit of the Company

68 No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company

Accounts

69 Once at the least in every year the directors shall lay before the Company in general meeting a statement of the income and expenditure for the past year made up to a date not more than three months before such meeting

70 The statement so made shall show arranged under the most convenient heads the amount of gross income distinguishing the several sources from which it has been derived and the amount of gross expenditure distinguishing the expense of the establishment salaries and other like matters; every item of expenditure fairly chargeable against the year's income shall be brought into account so that a just balance of profit and loss may be laid before the meeting and in cases where any item of expenditure which may in fairness be distributed over several years has been incurred in any one year the whole amount of such item shall be stated with the addition of the reasons why only a portion of such expenditure is charged against the income of the year

71 A balance sheet shall be made out in every year and laid before the general meeting of the Company and such balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to this table or as near thereto as circumstances admit

72 A printed copy of such balance sheet shall seven days previously to such meeting be delivered at or sent by post to the registered address of every shareholder

Audit

73 The accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more auditor or auditors to be elected by the Company in general meeting

74 If not more than one auditor is appointed all the provisions contained relating to auditors shall apply to him

75 The auditors need not be shareholders in the Company nor be eligible as an auditor who is interested otherwise than as a shareholder in any transaction of the Company and no director or other officer of the Company is eligible during his continuance in office

(Appendix I —Table B in Schedule to Act VII of 1857)

76 The election of auditors shall be made by the Company at their ordinary meeting or, if there are more than one, at their first ordinary meeting in each year

77 The remuneration of the auditors shall be fixed by the Company at the time of their election

78 Any auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office

79 If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the directors shall forthwith call an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of supplying the same

80 If no election of auditors is made in manner aforesaid, the Local Government may, on the application of one fifth in number of the shareholders of the Company, appoint an auditor for the current year, and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his services.

82 Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Company, and he shall at all reasonable times have access to the books and accounts of the Company, he may, at the expense of the Company, employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and he may in relation to such accounts examine the directors or any other officer of the Company

83 The auditors shall make a report to the shareholders upon the balance-sheet and accounts, and in every such report they shall state whether in their opinion the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet containing the particulars required by these regulations, and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs, and in case they have called for explanations or information from the directors, whether such explanations or information have been given by the directors, and whether they have been satisfactory, and such report shall be read, together with the report of the directors, at the ordinary meeting

Notices

84 Notices requiring to be served by the Company upon the shareholders may be served either personally, or by leaving the same, or sending them through the post in a letter addressed to the shareholders, at their registered places of abode

85 All notices directed to be given to the shareholders shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of the said persons is named first in the register of shareholders, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the proprietors of such share

(1) If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for any dividend payable in respect of such share

(2) Every member shall, on payment of eight annas or such less sum as the Company in general meeting may prescribe, be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the Company, specifying the share or shares held by him, and the amount paid up thereon

(3) If such certificate is worn out or lost it may be renewed on payment of eight annas or such less sum as the Company in general meeting may prescribe

Calls on Shares

(4) The directors may from time to time make such calls upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares as they think fit, provided that twenty one days' notice at least is given of each call, and each member shall be liable to pay the amount of calls so made to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the directors

(5) A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising such call was passed

(6) If the call payable in respect of any share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of such share shall be liable to pay interest for the same at the rate of five per cent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment

(7) The directors may, if they think fit receive, from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and, upon the moneys so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the member paying such sum in advance and the directors agree upon

Transfer of Shares

(8) The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register book in respect thereof

(9) Shares in the Company shall be transferred in the following form
 I A B of _____ in consideration of the sum of rupees _____ paid to me by C D of _____ do hereby transfer to the said C D the share (or shares) numbered _____ standing in my name in the books of the _____ Company to hold unto the said C D his executors administrators and assigns subject to the several conditions on which I held the same at the time of the execution thereof, and I the said C D, do hereby agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the same conditions As witness our hands the day of _____

(10) The Company may decline to register any transfer of shares made by a member who is indebted to them

(11) The transfer books shall be closed during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year

Transmission of Shares

(12) The executors or administrators of a deceased member shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his share

(13) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any member or in consequence of the marriage of any female member may be registered as a member upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Company

(14) Any person who has become entitled to a share in consequence of the death bankruptcy or insolvency of any member or in consequence of the marriage of any female member may instead of being registered himself elect to have some person to be named by him registered as a transferee of such share

(15) The person so becoming entitled shall testify such election by executing to his nominee an instrument of transfer of such share

(16) The instrument of transfer shall be presented to the Company together with such evidence as the directors may require to prove the title of the transferee and thereupon the Company shall register the transferee as a member

Forfeiture of Shares

(17) If any member fails to pay any call on the day appointed for payment thereof the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring him to pay such call together with interest and any expenses that may have accrued by reason of such non payment

(18) The notice shall name a further day on or before which such call and all interest and expenses that have accrued by reason of such non payment are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made, the place so named being either the registered office of the Company or some other place at which calls of the Company are usually made payable. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited

(19) If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls, interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect

(20) Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be disposed of in such manner as the Company in general meeting thinks fit

(21) Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay to the Company all calls owing upon such shares at the time of the forfeiture

(22) A solemn declaration in writing made before a Magistrate, that the call in respect of a share was made and notice thereof given, and that default in payment of the call was made and that the forfeiture of the share was made by a resolution of the directors to that effect, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons entitled to such share and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share, and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to the purchaser, and thereupon he shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such sale

(23) The directors may, with the sanction of the Company previously given in general meeting convert any paid up shares into stock

(24) When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may thenceforth transfer their respective interests therein, or any part of such interest, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which any shares in the capital of the Company may be transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit

(25) The several holders of stock shall be entitled to participate in the dividends and profits of the Company according to the amount of their respective interests in such stock, and such interests shall, in proportion to the amount thereof, confer on the holders thereof, respectively, the same privileges and advantages for the purpose of voting at meetings of the Company and for other purposes as would have been conferred by shares of equal amount in the capital of the Company, but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in the dividends and profits of the Company, shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of the consolidated stock as would not, if existing in shares have conferred such privileges or advantages

Increase in Capital

(26) The directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company previously given in general meeting, increase its capital by the issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount, and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts, as the Company in general meeting directs, or, if no direction is given, as the directors think expedient

(27) Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the meeting that sanctions the increase of capital, all new shares shall be offered to the members in proportion to the existing shares held by them, and such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares to which the member is entitled and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the member to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company

(28) Any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions, with reference to the payment of calls, and the forfeiture of shares on non-payment of calls, or otherwise, as if it had been part of the original capital

(29) The first general meeting shall be held at such time, not being more than six months after the registration of the Company, and at such place as the directors may determine

(30) Subsequent general meetings shall be held, once at the least in every year, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, and if no other time or place is prescribed, a general meeting shall be held on the first Monday in February in every year at such place as may be determined by the directors

(31) The above mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings, all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary

(32) The directors may whenever they think fit and they shall upon a requisition made in writing by not less than one fifth in number of the members of the Company convene an extraordinary general meeting.

(33) Any requisition made by the members shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left at the registered office of the Company.

(34) Upon the receipt of such requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting. If they do not proceed to convene the same within twenty nine days from the date of the requisition the requisitionists or any other members amounting to the required number may themselves convene an extraordinary general meeting.

Proceedings at General Meeting

(35) Seven days' notice at the least specifying the place the day and the hour of meeting and in case of special business the general nature of such business shall be given to the members in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner if any as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting but the non receipt of such notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

(36) All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting with the exception of sanctioning a dividend and the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the ordinary report of the directors.

(37) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting except the declaration of a dividend unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Such quorum shall be ascertained as follows that is to say—If the persons who have taken shares in the Company at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number the quorum shall be five if they exceed ten there shall be added to the above quorum one for every five additional members up to fifty and one for every ten additional members after fifty with this limitation that no quorum shall in any case exceed twenty.

(38) If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present it shall be adjourned sine die.

(39) The chairman (if any) of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company.

(40) If there is no such chairman or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman.

transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place

(42) At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least five members, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution

(43) If a poll is demanded by five or more members, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in general meeting. In the case of an equality of votes at any general meeting, the chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote

(44) Every member shall have one vote for every share up to ten. He shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every ten shares beyond the first hundred shares

(45) If any member is a lunatic or idiot, he may vote by his committee or other legal curator, and if any member is a minor, he may vote by his guardian or any one of his guardians if more than one

(46) If one or more persons are jointly entitled to a share or shares, the member whose name stands first in the register of members as one of the holders of such share or shares, and no other, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same

(47) No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls due from him have been paid, and no member shall be entitled to vote in respect of any share that he has acquired by transfer at any meeting held after the expiration of three months from the registration of the Company, unless he has been possessed of the share in respect of which he claims to vote for at least three months previously to the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote

(48) Votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

(49) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, under the hand of the appointor, or, if such appointor is a corporation under their common seal and shall be attested by one or more witness or witnesses. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a member of the Company

(50) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than seventy two hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, but no instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution

(Appendix II — Table A in the First Schedule to Act VI of 1882)

(51) Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form —

I, _____, of _____, being a member of the _____ Company Limited and entitled to vote or _____ votes, hereby appoint _____, of _____, as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the [ordinary or extraordinary as the case may be] general meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, and at any adjournment thereof (or at any meeting of the Company that may be held in the year _____) As witness my hand this _____ day of _____ Signed by the said _____ in the presence of _____

Directors

(52) The number of the directors and the names of the first directors, shall be determined by the subscribers of the memorandum of association

(53) Until directors are appointed the subscribers of the memorandum of association shall be deemed to be directors

(54) The future remuneration of the directors and their remuneration for services performed previously to the first general meeting shall be determined by the Company in general meeting

Powers of Directors

(55) The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the foregoing Act or by these articles required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these articles to the provisions of the foregoing Act and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made

(56) The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body

(57) The office of director shall be vacated—

if he, or any partner of his or the firm of which he is a member, holds any other office or place of profit under the Company

if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent,

if he is punished under any of the penal provisions of the foregoing Act

(Appendix II —Table A in the First Schedule to Act VI of 1882)

But the above rules shall be subject to the following exceptions —that no director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a member of any Company which has entered into contracts with or done any work for the Company of which he is director nevertheless he shall not vote in respect of such contract or work and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted

Rotation of Directors

(58) At the first ordinary meeting after the registration of the Company the whole of the directors shall retire from office and at the first ordinary meeting in every subsequent year one third of the directors for the time being or if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to one third shall retire from office

(59) The one third or other nearest number to retire during the first and second years ensuing the first ordinary meeting of the Company shall unless the directors agree among themselves be determined by ballot In every subsequent year the one third or other nearest number who have been longest in office shall retire

(60) A retiring director shall be re eligible

(61) The Company at the general meeting at which any directors retire in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacated offices by electing a like number of persons

(62) If at any meeting at which an election of directors ought to take place the places of the vacating directors are not filled up the meeting shall stand adjourned till the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if at such adjourned meeting the places of the vacating directors are not filled up the vacating directors or such of them as have not had their places filled up shall continue in office until the ordinary meeting in the next year and so on from time to time until their places are filled up

(63) The Company may from time to time in general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors and may also determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office

(64) Any casual vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled up by the directors but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred

(65) The Company in general meeting may by a special resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead The person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed

(66) The directors may meet together for the despatch of business adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A director may at any time summon a meeting of the directors.

(67) The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings, and determine the period for which he is to hold office, but, if no such chairman is elected or if at any meeting the chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

(68) The directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit. Any committees so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the directors.

(69) A committee may elect a chairman of its meetings. If no such chairman is elected, or if he is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

(70) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and, in case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(71) All acts done by any meeting of the directors, or of a committee of directors, or by any person acting as a director, shall notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

Dividends

(72) The directors may, with the sanction of the Company in general meeting, declare a dividend to be paid to the members in proportion to their shares.

(73) No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits arising from the business of the Company.

(74) The directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining the works connected with the business of the Company or any part thereof, and the directors may invest the sum so set apart as a reserved fund upon such securities as they may select.

(75) The directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any member all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.

(Appendix II —Table A in the First Schedule to Act VI of 1882)

(76) Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to each member in manner hereinafter mentioned and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared may be forfeited by the directors for the benefit of the Company

(77) No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company

Accounts

(78) The directors shall cause true accounts to be kept—of the stock in trade of the Company of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure take place, and of the credits and liabilities of the Company

The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same that may be imposed by the Company in general meetings shall be open to the inspection of the members during the hours of business

(79) Once at the least in every year the directors shall lay before the Company in general meeting a statement of the income and expenditure for the past year made up to a date not more than three months before such meeting

(80) The statement so made shall show arranged under the most convenient heads the amount of gross income distinguishing the several sources from which it has been derived and the amount of gross expenditure distinguishing the expenses of the establishment salaries and other like matters Every item of expenditure fairly chargeable against the year's income shall be brought into account so that a just balance of profit and loss may be laid before the meeting and in cases where any item of expenditure which may in fairness be distributed over several years has been incurred in any one year the whole amount of such item shall be stated with the addition of the reasons why only a portion of such expenditure is charged against the income of the year

(81) A balance sheet shall be made out in every year and laid before the Company in general meeting and such balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to this table or as near thereto as circumstances admit

(82) A printed copy of such balance sheet shall seven days previous to such meeting be served on every member in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served

Audit

(83) Once at the least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the balance-sheet ascertained by one or more auditor or auditors.

(84) The first auditors shall be appointed by the directors, subsequent auditors shall be appointed by the Company in general meeting.

(85) If one auditor only is appointed all the provisions herein contained relating to auditors shall apply to him.

(86) The auditors may be members of the Company, but no person is eligible as an auditor who is interested otherwise than as a member in any transaction of the Company and no director or other officer of the Company is eligible during his continuance in office.

(87) The election of auditors shall be made by the Company at their ordinary meeting in each year.

(88) The remuneration of the first auditors shall be fixed by the directors, that of subsequent auditors shall be fixed by the Company in general meeting.

(89) Any auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office.

(90) If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of any auditor appointed by the Company, the directors shall forthwith call an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of supplying the same.

(91) If no election of auditors is made in manner aforesaid the Local Government may on the application of not less than five members of the Company appoint an auditor for the current year and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his services.

(92) Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the balance-sheet and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto.

(93) Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Company and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books and accounts of the Company. He may, at the expense of the Company, employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and he may, in relation to such account examine the directors or any other officer of the Company.

(94) The auditors shall make a report to the members upon the balance-sheet and accounts and in such report they shall state whether, in their opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing the particulars required by these regulations and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs, and in case they have called for explanations or information from the directors, whether such explanations or information have or has been given by the directors and whether they or it have or has been satisfactory. Such report shall be read together with the report of the directors at the ordinary meeting.

Notices

(95) A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a letter addressed to such member at his registered place of abode

(96) All notices directed to be given to the members shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the register of members, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such share

(97) Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of the post, and, in proving such service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office

An Act to amend and consolidate the Law relating to Copyright

[16th December, 1911]

Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows —

Copyright

1. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act copyright shall subsist throughout the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends for the term hereinafter mentioned in every original literary dramatic musical and artistic work if—

- (a) in the case of a published work, the work was first published within such parts of His Majesty's dominions as aforesaid, and
- (b) in the case of an unpublished work the author was at the date of the making of the work a British subject or resident within such parts of His Majesty's dominions as aforesaid

but in no other works except so far as the protection conferred by this Act is extended by Orders in Council thereunder relating to self governing dominions to which this Act does not extend and to foreign countries

(2) For the purposes of this Act, "copyright" means the sole right to produce or reproduce the work or any substantial part thereof in any material form whatsoever, to perform, or in the case of a lecture to deliver, the work or any substantial part thereof in public if the work is unpublished to publish the work or any substantial part thereof, and shall include the sole right—

- (a) to produce, reproduce perform or publish any translation of the work,
- (b) in the case of a dramatic work to convert it into a novel or other non dramatic work,
- (c) in the case of a novel or other non dramatic work or of an artistic work to convert it into a dramatic work by way of performance in public or otherwise,

(The First Schedule — Portions of the Copyright Act applicable to British India)

- (d) in the case of a literary dramatic or musical work to make any record perforated roll cinematograph film or other contrivance by means of which the work may be mechanically performed or delivered and to authorise any such acts as aforesaid

(3) For the purposes of this Act publication in relation to any work, means the issue of copies of the work to the public and does not include the performance in public of a dramatic or musical work the delivery in public of a lecture the exhibition in public of an artistic work or the construction of an architectural work of art but for the purposes of this provision the issue of photographs and engravings of works of sculpture and architectural works of art shall not be deemed to be publication of such works

2 (1) Copyright in a work shall be deemed to be infringed by any person who without the consent of the owner of the copyright does anything the sole right to do which is by this Act conferred on the owner of the copyright Provided that the following acts shall not constitute an infringement of copyright —

Infringement of copyright.

- (i) Any fair dealing with any work for the purposes of private study research criticism review or newspaper summary
- (ii) Where the author of an artistic work is not the owner of the copyright therein the use by the author of any mould cast sketch plan model or study made by him for the purpose of the work provided that he does not thereby repeat or imitate the main design of that work
- (iii) The making or publishing of paintings drawings engravings, or photographs of a work of sculpture or artistic craftsmanship if permanently situate in a public place or building or the making or publishing of paintings drawings engravings or photographs (which are not in the nature of architectural drawings or plans) of any architectural work of art
- (iv) The publication in a collection mainly composed of non copyright matter bona fide intended for the use of schools and so described in the title and in any advertisements issued by the publisher of short passages from published literary works not themselves published for the use of schools in which copyright subsists Provided that not more than two of such passages from works by the same author are published by the same publisher within five years and that the source from which such passages are taken is acknowledged
- (v) The publication in a newspaper of a report of a lecture delivered in public unless the report is prohibited by conspicuous written or printed notice affixed before and maintained during the lecture at or about the main entrance of the building in which the lecture is given, and, except whilst the building is being used for public worship, in a position near the lecturer, but nothing in this paragraph shall affect the provisions in paragraph (1) as to newspaper summaries

(vi) The reading or recitation in public by one person of any reasonable extract from any published work

(2) Copyright in a work shall also be deemed to be infringed by any person who—

(a) sells or lets for hire, or by way of trade exposes or offers for sale or hire, or

(b) distributes either for the purposes of trade or to such an extent as to affect prejudicially the owner of the copyright, or

(c) by way of trade exhibits in public, or

(d) imports for sale or hire into any part of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends, any work which to his knowledge infringes copyright or would infringe copyright if it had been made within the part of His Majesty's dominions in or into which the sale or hiring, exposure, offering for sale or hire, distribution exhibition, or importation took place

(3) Copyright in a work shall also be deemed to be infringed by any person who for his private profit permits a theatre or other place of entertainment to be used for the performance in public of the work without the consent of the owner of the copyright unless he was not aware, and had no reasonable ground for suspecting that the performance would be an infringement of copyright

3 The term for which copyright shall subsist shall, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, be the life of the author and a period of fifty years after his death

Provided that at any time after the expiration of twenty five years, or in the case of a work in which copyright subsists at the passing of this Act, thirty years, from the death of the author of a published work, copyright in the work shall not be deemed to be infringed by the reproduction of the work for sale if the person reproducing the work proves that he has given the prescribed notice in writing of his intention to reproduce the work, and that he has paid in the prescribed manner to, or for the benefit of, the owner of the copyright royalties in respect of all copies of the work sold by him calculated at the rate of ten per cent on the price at which he publishes the work, and, for the purposes of this proviso, the Board of Trade may make regulations prescribing the mode in which notices are to be given, and the particulars to be given

¹ Regulations called the Indian Copyright Regulations 1914 have been made under the proviso to s 3 and in conjunction with sections 14 and 19 of this Act as modified in its application to British India, see Gen R and O, Vol IV, p 480

in such notices and the mode time and frequency of the payment of royalties including (if they think fit) regulations requiring payment in advance or otherwise securing the payment of royalties

4 If at any time after the death of the author of a literary dramatic or musical work which has been published or performed in public a complaint is made to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council that the owner of the copyright in the work has refused to republish or to allow the republication of the work or has refused to allow the performance in public of the work and that by reason of such refusal the work is withheld from the public the owner of the copyright may be ordered to grant a licence to reproduce the work or perform the work in public as the case may be on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Judicial Committee may think fit

5 (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the author of a work shall be the first owner of the copyright therein

etc

Provided that—

(a) where in the case of an engraving photograph or portrait the plate or other original was ordered by some other person and was made for valuable consideration in pursuance of that order then in the absence of any agreement to the contrary the person by whom such plate or other original was ordered shall be the first owner of the copyright

(b) where the author was in the employment of some other person under a contract of service or apprenticeship and the work was made in the course of his employment by that person the person by whom the author was employed shall in the absence of any agreement to the contrary be the first owner of the copyright but where the work is an article or other contribution to a newspaper magazine or similar periodical there shall in the absence of any agreement to the contrary be deemed to be reserved to the author a right to restrain the publication of the work otherwise than as part of a newspaper magazine or similar periodical

(2) The owner of the copyright in any work may assign the right either wholly or partially and either generally or subject to limitations to the United Kingdom or any self governing dominion or other part of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends and either for the whole term of the copyright or for any part thereof and may grant any interest in the right by licence but no such assignment or grant shall be valid unless it is in writing signed by the owner of the right in respect of which the assignment or grant is made or by his duly authorised agent

Provided that where the author of a work is the first owner of the copyright therein no assignment of the copyright and no grant of any interest therein, made by him (otherwise than by will) after the passing of this Act, shall be

operative to vest in the assignee or grantee any rights with respect to the copyright in the work beyond the expiration of twenty five years from the death of the author and the reversionary interest in the copyright expectant on the termination of that period shall on the death of the author notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, devolve on his legal personal representatives as part of his estate and any agreement entered into by him as to the disposition of such reversionary interest shall be null and void but nothing in this proviso shall be construed as applying to the assignment of the copyright in a collective work or a licence to publish a work or part of a work as part of a collective work

(3) Where under any partial assignment of copyright the assignee becomes entitled to any right comprised in copyright the assignee as respects the rights so assigned and the assignor, as respects the rights not assigned, shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as the owner of the copyright, and the provisions of this Act shall have effect accordingly

Civil Remedies

6. (1) Where copyright in any work has been infringed the owner of the copyright shall except as otherwise provided by this Act, be entitled to all such remedies by way of injunction or interdict damages accounts, and otherwise as are or may be conferred by law for the infringement of a right

(2) The costs of all parties in any proceedings in respect of the infringement of copyright shall be in the absolute discretion of the Court

(3) In any action for infringement of copyright in any work, the work shall be presumed to be a work in which copyright subsists and the plaintiff shall be presumed to be the owner of the copyright unless the defendant puts in issue the existence of the copyright or as the case may be the title of the plaintiff, and where any such question is in issue then—

- (a) if a name purporting to be that of the author of the work is printed or otherwise indicated thereon in the usual manner, the person whose name is so printed or indicated shall unless the contrary is proved be presumed to be the author of the work,
- (b) if no name is so printed or indicated, or if the name so printed or indicated is not the author's true name or the name by which he is commonly known, and a name purporting to be that of the publisher or proprietor of the work is printed or otherwise indicated thereon in the usual manner the person whose name is so printed or indicated shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to be the owner of the copyright in the work for the purposes of proceedings in respect of the infringement of copyright therein

nical instruments

19 (1) Copyright shall subsist in records perforated rolls, and other contrivances by means of which sounds may be mechanically reproduced, in like manner as if such contrivances were musical works but the term of copyright shall be fifty years from the making of the original plate from which the contrivance was directly or indirectly derived, and the person who was the owner of such original plate at the time when such plate was made shall be deemed to be the author of the work, and where such owner is a body corporate the body corporate shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to reside within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends if it has established a place of business within such parts

(2) It shall not be deemed to be an infringement of copyright in any musical work for any person to make within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends records perforated rolls or other contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed, if such person proves—

(a) that such contrivances have previously been made by or with the consent or acquiescence of the owner of the copyright in the work and

(The First Schedule — Portions of the Copyright Act applicable to British India)

- (b) that he has given the prescribed notice of his intention to make the contrivances and has paid in the prescribed manner to, or for the benefit of, the owner of the copyright in the work royalties in respect of all such contrivances sold by him, calculated at the rate hereinafter mentioned

Provided that—

- (i) nothing in this provision shall authorise any alterations in or omissions from the work reproduced unless contrivances reproducing the work subject to similar alterations and omissions have been previously made by or with the consent or acquiescence of the owner of the copyright or unless such alterations or omissions are reasonably necessary for the adaptation of the work to the contrivances in question and
- (ii) for the purposes of this provision a musical work shall be deemed to include any words so closely associated therewith as to form part of the same work but shall not be deemed to include a contrivance by means of which sounds may be mechanically reproduced

(3) The rate at which such royalties as aforesaid are to be calculated shall—

- (a) in the case of contrivances sold within two years after the commencement of this Act by the person making the same be two and one half per cent and
- (b) in the case of contrivances sold as aforesaid after the expiration of that period be five per cent

on the ordinary retail selling price of the contrivance calculated in the prescribed manner so however that the royalty payable in respect of a contrivance shall in no case be less than a half penny for each separate musical work in which copyright subsists reproduced thereon and where the royalty calculated as aforesaid include a fraction of a farthing such fraction shall be reckoned as a farthing

Provided that if at any time after the expiration of seven years from the commencement of this Act it appears to the Board of Trade that such rate as aforesaid is no longer equitable the Board of Trade may after holding a public inquiry make an order either decreasing or increasing that rate to such extent as under the circumstances may seem just but any order so made shall be provisional only and shall not have any effect unless and until confirmed by Parliament but where an order revising the rate has been so made and confirmed no further revision shall be made before the expiration of fourteen years from the date of the last revision

(4) If any such contrivance is made reproducing two or more different works in which copyright subsists and the owners of the copyright therein are different persons the sums payable by way of royalties under this section

shall be apportioned amongst the several owners of the copyright in such proportions as, failing agreement, may be determined by arbitration

(5) When any such contrivances by means of which a musical work may be mechanically performed have been made, then, for the purposes of this section, the owner of the copyright in the work shall, in relation to any person who makes the prescribed inquiries, be deemed to have given his consent to the making of such contrivances if he fails to reply to such inquiries within the prescribed time

(6) For the purposes of this section, the Board of Trade may make regulations prescribing anything which under this section is to be prescribed, and prescribing the mode in which notices are to be given and the particulars to be given in such notices, and the mode, time, and frequency of the payment of royalties, and any such regulations may if the Board think fit, include regulations requiring payment in advance or otherwise securing the payment of royalties

(7) In the case of musical works published before the commencement of this Act the foregoing provisions shall have effect subject to the following modifications and additions —

- (a) The conditions as to the previous making by, or with the consent or acquiescence of the owner of the copyright in the work, and the restrictions as to alterations in or omissions from the work shall not apply
- (b) The rate of two and one half per cent shall be substituted for the rate of five per cent as the rate at which royalties are to be calculated but no royalties shall be payable in respect of contrivances sold before the 1st day of July, 1913 if contrivances reproducing the same work had been lawfully made or placed on sale, within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends before the 1st day of July, 1910
- (c) Notwithstanding any assignment made before the passing of this Act of the copyright in a musical work, any rights conferred by this Act in respect of the making or authorising the making of contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed shall belong to the author or his legal personal representatives and not to the assignees and the royalties aforesaid shall be payable to and for the benefit of, the author of the work or his legal personal representatives
- (d) The saving contained in this Act of the rights and interests arising from or in connexion with action taken before the commencement of this Act shall not be construed as authorising any person who has made contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed to sell any such contrivances,

(The First Schedule — Portions of the Copyright Act applicable to British India)

whether made before or after the passing of this Act except on the terms and subject to the conditions laid down in the section

- (c) Where the work is a work on which copyright is conferred by an Order in Council relating to a foreign country the copyright so conferred shall not except to such extent as may be provided by the Order include any rights with respect to the making of records perforated rolls or other contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed

(8) Notwithstanding anything in this Act where a record perforated roll, or other contrivance by means of which sounds may be mechanically reproduced has been made before the commencement of this Act copyright shall, as from the commencement of this Act subsist therein in like manner and for the like term as if this Act had been in force at the date of the making of the original plate from which the contrivance was directly or indirectly derived

- (i) the person who at the commencement of this Act is the owner of such original plate shall be the first owner of such copyright and
(ii) nothing in this provision shall be construed as conferring copyright in any such contrivance if the making thereof would have infringed copyright in some other such contrivance if this provision had been in force at the time of the making of the first mentioned contrivance

20 Notwithstanding anything in this Act it shall not be an infringement of copyright in an address of a political nature delivered at a public meeting to publish a report thereof in a newspaper Provis on as to polit cal speeches

21 The term for which copyright shall subsist in photographs shall be fifty years from making of the original negative from which the photograph was directly or indirectly derived and the person who was owner of such negative at the time when such negative was made shall be deemed to be the author of the work and where such owner is a body corporate the body corporate shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to reside within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends if it has established a place of business within such parts Provis on as to photo-graphs

22 (1) This Act shall not apply to designs capable of being registered under the Patents and Designs Act 1907 except designs which though capable of being so registered are not used or intended to be used as models or patterns to be multiplied by any industrial process Provis ons to designs registrable under 7 Edw 7, c 29

(2) General rules under section 86 of the Patents and Designs Act 1907 may be made for determining the conditions under which a design shall be deemed to be used for such purposes as aforesaid

extends

23. If it appears to His Majesty that a foreign country does not give, or has not undertaken to give adequate protection to the works of British authors, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council to direct that such of the provisions of this Act as confer copyright on works first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends shall not apply to works published after the date specified in the Order, the authors whereof are subjects or citizens of such foreign country, and are not resident in His Majesty's dominions, and thereupon those provisions shall not apply to such works

works

24. (1) Where any person is immediately before the commencement of this Act entitled to any such right in any work as is specified in the first column of the First Schedule to this Act or to any interest in such a right, he shall, as from that date, be entitled to the substituted right set forth in the second column of that schedule, or to the same interest in such a substituted right, and to no other right or interest, and such substituted right shall subsist for the term for which it would have subsisted if this Act had been in force at the date when the work was made and the work had been one entitled to copyright thereunder

Provided that—

- (a) if the author of any work in which any such right as is specified in the first column of the First Schedule to this Act subsists at the commencement of this Act has before that date, assigned the right or granted any interest therein for the whole term of the right, then at the date when but for the passing of this Act, the right would have expired the substituted right conferred by this section shall in the absence of express agreement, pass to the author of the work and any interest therein created before the commencement of this Act and then subsisting shall determine, but the person who immediately before the date at which the right would have so expired was the owner of the right or interest shall be entitled at his option either—
 - (i) on giving such notice as hereinafter mentioned, to an assignment of the right or the grant of a similar interest therein for the remainder of the term of the right for such consideration as, failing agreement, may be determined by arbitration, or
 - (ii) without any such assignment or grant, to continue to reproduce or perform the work in like manner as theretofore subject to the payment, if demanded by the author within three years after the date at which the right would have so expired, of such royalties to the author as, failing agreement, may be determined by arbitration, or, where the work is incorporated in a collective work and the owner of the right or

interest is the proprietor of that collective work, without any such payment,

The notice above referred to must be given not more than one year nor less than six months before the date at which the right would have so expired, and must be sent by registered post to the author, or, if he cannot with reasonable diligence be found, advertised in the London Gazette and in two London newspapers,

- (b) where any person has before the 26th day of July, 1910 taken any action whereby he has incurred any expenditure or liability in connexion with the reproduction or performance of any work in a manner which at the time was lawful or for the purpose of or with a view to the reproduction or performance of a work at a time when such reproduction or performance would but for the passing of this Act have been lawful nothing in this section shall diminish or prejudice any rights or interest arising from or in connexion with such action which are subsisting and valuable at the said date, unless the person who by virtue of this section becomes entitled to restrain such reproduction or performance agrees to pay such compensation as failing agreement may be determined by arbitration

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression author includes the legal personal representatives of a deceased author

(3) Subject to the provisions of section 19 sub sections (7) and (8) and of section 33 of this Act copyright shall not subsist in any work made before the commencement of this Act otherwise than under and in accordance with, the provisions of this section

Application to British Possessions

25 (1) This Act except such of the provisions thereof as are expressly restricted to the United Kingdom shall extend throughout His Majesty's dominions. Provided that it shall not extend to a self governing dominion, unless declared by the Legislature of that dominion to be in force therein either without any modifications or additions or with such modifications and additions relating exclusively to procedure and remedies or necessary to adapt this Act to the circumstances of the dominion as may be enacted by such Legislature

(2) If the Secretary of State certifies by notice published in the London Gazette that any self governing dominion has passed legislation under which works, the authors whereof were at the date of the making of the works British subjects resident elsewhere than in the dominion or (not being British subjects) were resident in the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends enjoy within the dominion rights substantially identical with those conferred by this Act then, whilst such legislation continues in force, the dominion

shall, for the purposes of the rights conferred by this Act, be treated as if it were a dominion to which this Act extends, and it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State to give such a certificate as aforesaid, notwithstanding that the remedies for enforcing the rights, or the restrictions on the importation of copies of works, manufactured in a foreign country, under the law of the dominion, differ from those under this Act

26. (1) The Legislature of any self governing dominion may, at any time, repeal all or any of the enactments relating to copyright passed by Parliament (including this Act) so far as they are operative within that dominion. Provided that no such repeal shall prejudicially affect any legal rights existing at the time of the repeal, and that, on this Act or any part thereof being so repealed by the Legislature of a self governing dominion that dominion shall cease to be a dominion to which this Act extends

(2) In any self governing dominion to which this Act does not extend, the enactments repealed by this Act shall, so far as they are operative in that dominion, continue in force until repealed by the Legislature of that dominion.

(3) Where His Majesty in Council is satisfied that the law of a self governing dominion to which this Act does not extend provides adequate protection within the dominion for the works (whether published or unpublished) of authors who at the time of the making of the work were British subjects resident elsewhere than in that dominion His Majesty in Council may, for the purpose of giving reciprocal protection, direct that this Act, except such parts (if any) thereof as may be specified in the Order, and subject to any conditions contained therein, shall, within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends, apply to works the authors whereof were, at the time of the making of the work, resident within the first mentioned dominion, and to works first published in that dominion, but save as provided by such an Order, works the authors whereof were resident in a dominion to which this Act does not extend shall not, whether they are British subjects or not, be entitled to any protection under this Act except such protection as is by this Act conferred on works first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends

Provided that no such Order shall confer any rights within a self governing dominion, but the Governor in Council of any self governing dominion to which this Act extends may, by Order, confer within that dominion the like rights as His Majesty in Council is, under the foregoing provisions of this subsection, authorised to confer within other parts of His Majesty's dominions

For the purposes of this subsection, the expression "a dominion to which this Act extends" includes a dominion which is for the purposes of this Act to be treated as if it were a dominion to which this Act extends

27. The Legislature of any British possession to which this Act extends may modify or add to any of the provisions of this Act in its application to the possession, but except so far as such modifications and additions relate to procedure and remedies, they shall apply only to works the authors whereof

28. His Majesty may, by Order in Council, extend this Act to any territories under his protection and to Cyprus, and on the making of any such Order, this Act shall, subject to the provisions of the Order, have effect as if the territories to which it applies or Cyprus were part of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends <sup>Application to protect-

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT

29. (1) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that this Act (except such parts if any, thereof as may be specified in the Order) shall apply— <sup>Powers to extend Act to foreign works</sup>

- (a) to works first published in a foreign country to which the Order relates in like manner as if they were first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends,
- (b) to literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works or any class thereof, the authors whereof were at the time of the making of the works subjects or citizens of a foreign country to which the Order relates in like manner as if the authors were British subjects,
- (c) in respect of residence in a foreign country to which the Order relates in like manner as if such residence were residence in the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the Act extends, and thereupon, subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act and of the Order, this Act shall apply accordingly

Provided that—

- (i) before making an Order in Council under this section in respect of any foreign country (other than a country with which His Majesty has entered into a convention relating to copyright), His Majesty shall be satisfied that that foreign country has made or has undertaken to make such provisions if any, as it appears to His Majesty expedient to require for the protection of works entitled to copyright under the provisions of Part I of this Act,
- (ii) the Order in Council may provide that the terms of copyright within such parts of His Majesty's dominions as aforesaid shall not exceed that conferred by the law of the country to which the Order relates,
- (iii) the provisions of this Act as to the delivery of copies of books shall not apply to works first published in such country, except so far as is provided by the Order

(The First Schedule—Portions of the Copyright Act applicable to British India)

- (iv) the Order in Council may provide that the enjoyment of the rights conferred by this Act shall be subject to the accomplishment of such conditions and formalities (if any) as may be prescribed by the Order,
- (v) in applying the provisions of this Act as to ownership of copyright, the Order in Council may make such modifications as appear necessary having regard to the law of the foreign country,
- (vi) in applying the provisions of this Act as to existing works the Order in Council may make such modifications as appear necessary, and may provide that nothing in those provisions as so applied shall be construed as reviving any right of preventing the production or importation of any translation in any case where the right has ceased by virtue of section 5 of the International Copyright Act, 1886

(2) An Order in Council under this section may extend to all the several countries named or described therein

of Part II to British possessions.

30 (1) An Order in Council under this Part of this Act shall apply to all His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends except self governing dominions and any other possessions specified in the Order with respect to which it appears to His Majesty expedient that the Order should not apply

(2) The Governor in Council of any self governing dominion to which this Act extends may, as respects that dominion make the like Orders as under this Part of this Act His Majesty in Council is authorised to make with respect to His Majesty's dominions other than self governing dominions and the provision of this Part of this Act shall with necessary modifications, apply accordingly

(3) Where it appears to His Majesty expedient to except from the provisions of any Order any part of his dominions not being a self governing dominion it shall be lawful for His Majesty by the same or any other Order in Council to declare that such Order and this Part of this Act shall not, and the same shall not apply to such part except so far as is necessary for preventing any prejudice to any rights acquired previously to the date of such Order

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

Abrogation of common law rights.

31. No person shall be entitled to copyright or any similar right in any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work, whether published or unpublished, otherwise than under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act or of any other statutory enactment for the time being in force but nothing in this section shall be construed as abrogating any right or jurisdiction to restrain a breach of trust or confidence

(The First Schedule — Portions of the Copyright Act applicable to British India)

32 (1) His Majesty in Council may make Orders for altering, revoking, or varying any Order in Council made under this Act or under any enactments repealed by this Act but any Order made under this section shall not affect prejudicially any rights or interests acquired or accrued at the date when the Order comes into operation and shall provide for the protection of such rights and interests

Provisions as to Orders in Council

(2) Every Order in Council made under this Act shall be published in the London Gazette and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made and shall have effect as if enacted in this Act

33 Nothing in this Act shall deprive any of the universities and colleges mentioned in the Copyright Act 1775 of any copyright they already possess under that Act but the remedies and penalties for infringement of any such copyright shall be under this Act and not under that Act

THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES LOANS ACT, 1914.

Act No IX of 1914.¹

[28th February, 1914.]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the grant of loans to Local Authorities.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the borrowing powers of local authorities, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. (1) This Act may be called the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914.

Preamble.
Short title and extent.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including the Sonthal Pat-ganas

2. In this Act, "local authority" means any person legally entitled to the control or management of any local or municipal fund, or legally entitled to impose any cess, rate, duty or tax within any local area, Definitions.

"funds", used with reference to any local authority, includes any local or municipal fund to the control or management of which such authority is legally entitled, and any cess, rate, duty or tax which such authority is legally entitled to impose, and any property vested in such authority,

"prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act, and

"work" includes a survey whether incidental to any other work or not

3. ["The Government" or the appropriate Government" means, in relation to cantonment authorities and in relation to port authorities in major ports, the Central Government, and in relation to other local authorities, the Provincial Government]

3. (1) A local authority may, subject to the prescribed conditions, borrow on the security of its funds or any portion thereof for any of the following purposes, namely,—

Borrowing powers of local authorities

- (i) the carrying out of any works which it is legally authorized to carry out,
- (ii) the giving of relief and the establishment and maintenance of relief works in times of famine or scarcity,
- (iii) the prevention of the outbreak or spread of any dangerous epidemic disease,
- (iv) any measures which may be connected with or ancillary to any purposes specified in clauses (ii) and (iii),
- (v) the repayment of money previously borrowed in accordance with law of India, 1914 P¹ V, p 5 for P² for Proceedings in Council, see ibid.

- 3 of the Scheduled Districts Act.

The Act has been amended in its application to the C P by the Local Authorities Loan (C P Amendment) Act, 1922 (C P 1 of 1922)

Provided that nothing in clause (v) shall be deemed to empower a local authority to fix a period for the repayment of any money borrowed thereunder which, when the period fixed for the repayment of the money previously borrowed is taken into account, will exceed the maximum period fixed for the repayment of a loan by or under any enactment for the time being in force

¹[Provided further that, in the case of loans other than loans made by the ²[appropriate Government] no amount exceeding twenty five lakhs of rupees shall be borrowed unless the terms, including the date of flotation, of such loan have been approved by the ³[appropriate Government]]

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorize any local authority—

(a) to borrow or spend money for any purpose for which, under the law for the time being in force, it is not authorized to apply its funds, or

(b) to borrow money by means of the issue of bills or promissory notes payable within any period not exceeding twelve months

Government to make rules

4. (1) The ⁴[appropriate Government] may make ⁵rules consistent with this Act as to—

- (i) the nature of the funds on the security of which money may be borrowed ,
- (ii) the works for which money may be borrowed ,
- (iii) the manner of making applications for permission to borrow money ,
- (iv) the inquiries to be made in relation to such loans, and the manner of conducting such inquiries ,
- (v) the cases and the forms in which particulars of applications and proceedings, and orders thereon, shall be published ,
- (vi) the cases in which the ⁷[appropriate Government] may make loans * * * ,
- ⁷[(vii) the cases in which local authorities may take loans from persons other than the ²[appropriate Government] ,]
- (viii) the manner of recording and enforcing the conditions on which money is to be borrowed ,
- (ix) the manner and time of making or raising loans ,
- (x) the inspection of any works carried out by means of loans ,

- (xi) the instalments, if any, by which loans shall be repaid, the interest to be charged on loans, and the manner and time of repaying loans and of paying the interest thereon,
- (xii) the sum to be charged against the funds which are to form the security for the loan, as costs in effecting the loan,
- (xiii) the attachment of such funds, and the manner of disposing of or collecting them,
- (xiv) the accounts to be kept in respect of loans,
- (xv) the utilization of unexpended balances of loans either in the reduction in any way of the debt of the local authority, or in carrying out any works which that authority is legally authorized to carry out and the sanction necessary to such utilization, and as to all other matters incidental to carrying this Act into effect

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be published 2* * * in the [Official Gazette], and on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act

5. If any money borrowed in accordance with the provisions of this Act or any interest or costs due in respect thereof, is or are not repaid according to the conditions of the loan, the '[appropriate Government]' if itself the lender, may, and, if the '[appropriate Government]' is not the lender, shall, on the application of the lender attach the funds on the security of which the loan was made. After such attachment, no person except an officer appointed in his behalf by the '[appropriate Government]', shall in any way deal with the attached funds, but such officer may do all acts in respect thereof which the borrowers might have done if such attachment had not taken place, and may apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the loan and of all interests and costs due in respect thereof and of all expenses caused by the attachment and subsequent proceedings.

Remedy by attachment if loan not repaid

Provided that no such attachment shall defeat or prejudice any debt for which the funds attached were previously pledged in accordance with law, but all such prior charges shall be paid out of the proceeds of the funds before any part of the proceeds is applied to the satisfaction of the liability in respect of which such attachment is made.

Attachment not to defeat prior charges legally made

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 26 of the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1910,⁵ the local authorities mentioned in Schedule I and any other local authority to which the '[appropriate Government]' may, by notification in the '[Official Gazette]', extend the provisions of this section, may, with the previous sanction of the '[appropriate Government]', borrow money

Issue of short term bills

⁵ Sub section (2) was rep. by the Devolution Act 1920 (33 of 1920), s. 2 and Sch. I

by means of the issue of bills or promissory notes payable within any period, not exceeding twelve months for any purpose for which such local authority may lawfully borrow money under any law for the time being in force

Provided that the amount of the bills or promissory notes which may be so issued shall not exceed when the amount of the other moneys for the time being borrowed by such local authority is taken into account the total amount which such local authority is empowered by law to borrow

(2) The [appropriate Government] may by general or special order, regulate the conditions on which money may be borrowed or repaid under this section

7 Except as provided by or under this Act, no local authority shall, for any purpose borrow money upon or otherwise charge its funds, and any contract otherwise made for that purpose after the passing of this Act shall be void

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed—

(a) to preclude any local authority from exercising the borrowing powers conferred on it by any special enactment now or here after in force, or

(b) to affect the power conferred on any local authority by any such enactment to charge its funds by guaranteeing the payment of interest on money to be applied to any purpose to which the funds of the local authority can legally be applied

8 The remedy mentioned in section 5 shall be available for the recovery of any money lent by the Secretary of State in Council to any local authority before the fifth day of September, eighteen hundred and seventy one and the interest due on such money

Letters Patent, to hold to him and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, and to be begotten for ever

AND WHEREAS in fulfilment of an engagement in that behalf made with Her said late Majesty's Government, during the lifetime of the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, deceased, the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy was desirous of settling in perpetuity such property on himself and the heirs male of his body who might succeed to the said Baronetcy, as should be adequate to support the dignity of the title conferred on him and them as aforesaid

AND WHEREAS the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy was seized of a Mansion House and hereditaments situate in the Island of Bombay called Mazagon Castle, and had an absolute estate of inheritance therein, and was desirous, in fulfilment of the aforesaid engagement, of settling Promissory Notes of the Government of India, producing an annual income of one lakh of rupees and the said Mansion House and hereditaments, to the uses upon the trusts, and for the purposes in the said Act No XX of 1860 limited and declared, concerning the same respectively

AND WHEREAS the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy was also desirous that the heirs male of his body to whom the said title and dignity of Baronet should descend, should take and bear the names of "Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy," in lieu of any other name or names whatever which they respectively might bear at the time of such descent on them respectively, and he was also desirous that the Revenue Commissioner for the Northern Division of the Presidency of Bombay, the Accountant General, and the Sub Treasurer at Bombay, for the time being should be Trustees for the aforesaid Promissory Notes, and be likewise the Trustees for carrying into execution the general purposes and powers of the said Act No XX of 1860, with relation to the same securities, and also with relation to the same Mansion House and hereditaments

AND WHEREAS the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy departed this life on the 14th day of April, 1859, before the aforesaid engagement with Her said late Majesty's Government was carried out on his part, and by his Will, dated the 9th day of April, 1853, duly signed and executed by him, gave and devised the residue of his estate, houses, lands, securities, moneys and effects, to and amongst his sons Cursetjee Jamsetjee, Rustomjee Jamsetjee, and Sorabjee Jamsetjee, and appointed his wife Aahoye and his said three sons, the executrix and executors of his said Will, and the said Will was duly proved by the said Cursetjee Jamsetjee, Rustomjee Jamsetjee and Sorabjee Jamsetjee alone

AND WHEREAS on the death of the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, the said title or dignity of Baronet, created by Her Majesty's said Letters Patent, devolved on and became and was at the date of the passing of the said Act No XX of 1860 vested in the said Cursetjee Jamsetjee, as the eldest son and heir male of the body of the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, deceased

AND WHEREAS the said Cursetjee Jamsetjee, the Second Baronet, Rustomjee Jamsetjee, and Sorabjee Jamsetjee, as the sons, residuary legatees and Executors of the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, First Baronet, deceased, and the said Anaboye being then the Dowager Lady Jejeebhoy as Executrix of the said Sir Jamssetjee Jejeebhoy First Baronet deceased in fulfilment of the engagement so as aforesaid entered into by the said Sir Jamssetjee Jejeebhoy First Baronet deceased with Her said late Majesty's Government were desirous of settling the said Government Promissory Notes and the said Mansion House and hereditaments so as aforesaid agreed to be settled by the said Sir Jamssetjee Jejeebhoy First Baronet deceased for the purpose of supporting the dignity of the said Baronetcy to the uses upon the Trusts and for the purposes in the said Act No XX of 1860 limited and declared concerning the same respectively

AND WHEREAS the said Dowager Lady Jejeebhoy was desirous that the said Mansion House and hereditaments called Mazagon Castle with their rights, members and appurtenances should be released exonerated and discharged from her right or title (if any) to dower or thirds and every other right interest or estate whatsoever which she the said Dowager Lady Jejeebhoy might have or claim to have in the said premises under any custom or law of the Parsees or otherwise howsoever

AND WHEREAS in order to give effect to the aforesaid purposes the said Act No XX of 1860 was passed and by the said Act it was inter alia enacted that the Revenue Commissioner for the Northern Division of the Presidency of Bombay, the Accountant General and the Sub Treasurer at Bombay should for the purposes of the said Act be a Corporation and that such Revenue Commissioner Accountant General and Sub Treasurer should be, and they were thereby constituted as such Corporation the Trustees for executing the powers and purposes of the said Act and that all the powers by the said Act vested in such Revenue Commissioner Accountant General, and Sub Treasurer as Trustees for the purposes of the said Act should be exercised by the persons for the time being acting as such Revenue Commissioner Accountant General and Sub Treasurer and that immediately from and after the passing of the said Act Promissory Notes of the Government of India producing an annual income of not less than one lakh of rupees should be transferred into the name of the said Corporation who should hold the same upon the trusts and for the purposes in the said Act expressed concerning the same (that was to say) upon the trusts in the said Act declared and set forth and it was also enacted that the said Mansion House and other hereditaments called Mazagon Castle situate in the Island of Bombay, with their rights members and appurtenances of which the said first Baronet was seized to him and his heirs should by force of the said Act from and immediately after the passing thereof stand limited to the uses in the said Act set forth

AND WHEREAS Promissory Notes of the Government of India producing at that time an annual income of not less than one lakh of rupees were after the passing of the said Act transferred into the name of the said Corporation, and the nominal amount of the Promissory Notes of the Government of India now held by the said Corporation is rupees twenty two lakhs fifty four thousand and four hundred

AND WHEREAS the persons now constituting the said Corporation under or by virtue of the said Act are the Commissioner for the time being for the Northern Division of the Presidency of Bombay, the Accountant General of Bombay and the Collector of Bombay

AND WHEREAS under the said Act XX of 1860 power was granted to the said Corporation to invest the Government Promissory Notes so to be transferred into the name of the said Corporation as aforesaid if the same should be discharged by the Government of India in or on any stocks funds or securities of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or of the Government of India and in like manner as often as the same should become necessary, to alter, vary, and change such stocks funds and securities for others of the same or alike nature

AND WHEREAS Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, the fifth and present Baronet, has represented to the Governor General in Council that it is desirable not only in his own interest but also in the interest of those who may succeed him in the Baronetcy, that more extensive powers of investment should be granted to the said Corporation

AND WHEREAS more extensive powers of investment have been allowed to Trustees of Settlements which are governed by the Indian Trusts Act, 1882

AND WHEREAS it appears that certain of the powers last aforesaid may safely be granted to the said Corporation with a view to a higher rate of interest being obtained from the investment of the funds for the time being subject to the Trusts of a Settlement effected by this Act

AND WHEREAS at the date when the said Act No. XX of 1860 was passed the locality in which the said Mansion House and hereditaments are situate was one of the principal residential localities of Bombay, and was healthy, but it has now ceased to be a healthy locality and the upper classes of the inhabitants of Bombay have ceased to reside there

AND WHEREAS the said Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy has represented to the Governor General in Council that he has been advised by his medical adviser and by Sanitary Authorities whom he has consulted that it is necessary for him to change his place of residence and to live in a more healthy part of the Island of Bombay, and has also represented that by reason of the present unhealthiness of the locality, future and succeeding Baronets who may succeed to the said title of Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, will be unable to live in the said Mansion House or on the said hereditaments and therefore that it is both desirable and necessary for him to purchase a new residence in a healthy locality in the Island of Bombay, and that, to enable him to do this it is necessary that power should be conferred to sell the said Mansion House and hereditaments and also to sell a portion of the said securities and to purchase a new residence out of the proceeds of the sale thereof

AND WHEREAS the said Corporation being the Trustees for the time being for executing the powers and purposes of the said Act XX of 1860 have agreed to the above proposals being carried into effect

AND WHEREAS all the possible Beneficiaries of the Trust under the said Act now living have agreed to the above proposals, with the exception of those relating to the sale of the said Mansion House and hereditaments

AND WHEREAS all the possible Beneficiaries of the Trust under the said Act, with the exception of two possible Beneficiaries have agreed to the said proposals relating to the sale of the said Mansion House

AND WHEREAS the objections advanced by and on behalf of the said two possible Beneficiaries have been duly considered by the Governor General in Council and have been overruled

AND WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to confer the said powers, and, for that purpose and for other divers good reasons it is expedient to repeal the said Act XX of 1860 and to substitute the following Act in lieu thereof

It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. (1) This Act may be called The Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy Baronetcy Short title Act 1915' and
